

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OF THE REVENUES OF THE STATE.

AN ACT APPROPRIATING FIFTY DOLLARS TO MIRANDA ADAMS.

Whereas, on the death of Jacob H. Adams, late Prothonotary of the Superior Court of the State of Delaware in and for Sussex County, George W. Jones was appointed to fill the vacancy in said office for unexpired term, so that the widow might have the benefit of said office for such unexpired term; Preamble.

And Whereas, upon the appointment of said George W. Jones the Secretary of State was required to collect a State tax of fifty dollars, although said Jacob H. Adams had paid fifty dollars State tax on his appointment to such office; Preamble.

And Whereas, the income from said office for such unexpired term was very small and the said Miranda Adams is in very necessitous circumstances; Preamble.

Now therefore, Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met:

OF THE REVENUES OF THE STATE. •

AN ACT AUTHORIZING PUPILS IN "SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 115 IN KENT COUNTY" TO ATTEND A SCHOOL OUTSIDE THE DISTRICT UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

Preamble.

Whereas, The village of Marydel lies partly in the State of Delaware, and partly in the State of Maryland;

Preamble.

And Whereas, "School District No. 115 in Kent County," embraces that part of the said village lying in the State of Delaware, and the school house of said district is situated in the said part of the aforesaid village;

Preamble.

And Whereas, In the part of the aforesaid village lying in the State of Maryland, there is another school building for the accommodation of certain of the school children resident in the State last aforesaid, which said school building is sufficiently large to accommodate not only such children, but also all those resident in "School District No. 115 in Kent County" aforesaid;

Preamble.

And Whereas, It is believed that, if authorized by law, the School Committee of said "School District No. 115 in Kent County," and the authorities having jurisdiction and control over the aforesaid school building in the State of Maryland, might make arrangements for the co-education of the aforesaid children resident in the State of Maryland and the aforesaid children resident in "School District No. 115 in Kent County," by which

District Library
Commission.

"Section 13. The District Library Commission so elected as aforesaid shall have the entire custody and management of the library and all property owned or leased, or donated, relating thereto, and all money raised by the district or donated for its establishment and maintenance, or paid by the State Treasurer, as hereinafter provided, shall be placed in the care and custody of said Commission, to be expended or retained by said Commission for and in behalf of the district for the foundation and establishment and for the maintenance and increase of its free public library.

Report.

The Commission shall make an explicit report to the district at each annual school meeting of all its receipts and expenditures, and of all the property of the district in its care and custody, including a statement of any unexpended balance of money, and of any bequests or donations in behalf of the district, and of any sum or sums received from the State as hereinafter provided, with such recommendations with reference to same as is deemed necessary for the district to consider.

The said Commission shall also make report and recommendation concerning the amount of money deemed necessary and proper by said Commission to be raised by taxation for any one year for said library, to the Board of Education or School Committee after the selection of said Commission as aforesaid and prior to the fixing of the rate of taxation for said purpose by said Board of Education, or School Committee. The said District Library Commission shall also make such reports, at such times and embracing such matters, to the State Library Commission created by this Act as the said State Library Commission shall order and direct.

Additional
powers.

The said District Library Commission shall also have the power to procure by purchase, lease or acceptance of a gift or donation, a room or rooms for said library, and to fit and furnish the same for a library, or a library and reading room, to provide for the heat and light in the same, and the care thereof; and may, with the consent of the Board of Education or the School Committee use any school room or rooms for this purpose; to purchase or accept donations or gifts of books, maga-

"Section 15. That any two or more School Districts may unite for the purpose of obtaining the benefit of this Act. Whenever any School Committee of any of such districts shall be petitioned therefor by at least five qualified electors thereof, said Committee shall arrange with the School Committee of any other of said districts for the holding of a special election to determine the question. At such election, any qualified elector in any one of said Districts shall be entitled to vote at said special election. If a majority of the votes then cast shall be in favor of uniting and establishing a free library for said Districts, the same shall be deemed and taken to be effected. The districts so united shall be taken to be one district for the purposes of this Act, and shall be considered as belonging to the class which any one of said Districts would have belonged to if there had been no union."

Section 14. That said Act be amended further by striking out all of Section 16 thereof, and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

District Library
Commission.

Section 13. The District Library Commission so elected as aforesaid shall have the entire custody and management of the library and all property owned or leased, or donated, relating thereto, and all money raised by the district or donated for its establishment and maintenance, or paid by the State Treasurer, as hereinafter provided, shall be placed in the care and custody of said Commission to be expended or retained by said Commission for and in behalf of the district for the foundation and establishment and for the maintenance and increase of its free public library.

Report.

The Commission shall make an explicit report to the district at each annual school meeting of all its receipts and expenditures, and of all the property of the district in its care and custody, including a statement of any unexpended balance of money, and of any bequests or donations in behalf of the district, and of any sum or sums received from the State as hereinafter provided, with such recommendations with reference to same as is deemed necessary for the district to consider.

The said Commission shall also make report and recommendation concerning the amount of money deemed necessary and proper by said Commission to be raised by taxation for any one year for said Library, to the Board of Education or School Committee after the selection of said Commission as aforesaid and prior to the fixing of the rate of taxation for said purpose by said Board of Education, or School Committee. The said District Library Commission shall also make such reports, at such times and embracing such matters, to the State Library Commission created by this Act as the said State Library Commission shall order and direct.

Additional
Powers.

The said District Library Commission shall also have the power to procure by purchase, lease or acceptance of a gift or donation, a room or rooms for said library, and to fit and furnish for the heat and light in the same, and the care thereof; and may, with the consent of the Board of Education or the School Committee use any school room or rooms for this purpose; to purchase or accept donations or gifts of books, magazines, newspapers and reviews; to employ a librarian or librarians and a custodian and care-taker, and shall have such further and additional powers in the premises as are or may be deemed necessary for the foundation and establishment, and the support and maintenance of a library, or a library and reading room.

The said Commission shall also have the power to make such rules and regulations for the conduct of the persons employed by it, and for the care and use of the books, newspapers, magazines and reviews in said library by the persons having authority to use said library, and also concerning the conduct and deportment of all persons while in or about said library or library and reading room, as said Commission shall or may from time to time deem proper and advisable; provided, the use of said library or library and reading room or the contents thereof shall be free to said district, or to any person outside the district who owns real estate assessable for the school of the district. The rules and regulations so made by said Commission shall be enforceable by a penalty which the Commission is hereby authorized the same for a library, or a library and reading room, to provide to impose. Infraction of rules.

Such penalty shall consist either of a suspension from the privileges of said library or library and reading room and the contents thereof, or by a money fine. All money fines imposed as aforesaid may be collected by proceedings instituted in the corporate name of the district before any Justice of the Peace of the County, and jurisdiction to hear and finally determine all such proceedings is hereby conferred upon any and all justices of the peace. The process, mode of proceeding and rendering of judgment shall be as now is, or hereafter may be, provided by law for the collection of fines before Justices of the Peace. Penalty. Fines. How collected.

All fines so collected shall be paid to the district and by it paid over to the District Library Commission to be used as other money of which it has the custody and care as hereinbefore provided. Disposition of fines.

Consolidation of two or more districts for the purposes of this act.

Section 15. That any two or more School Districts may unite for the purpose of obtaining the benefit of this Act. Whenever any School Committee of any such districts shall be petitioned therefor by at least five qualified electors thereof, said Committee shall arrange with the School Committee of any other of said districts for the holding of a special election to determine the question. At such election, any qualified elector in any one of said Districts shall be entitled to vote at said special election. If a majority of the votes then cast shall be in favor of uniting and establishing a free library for said Districts, the same shall be deemed and taken to be effected. The districts so united shall be taken to be one district for the purposes of this Act, and shall be considered as belonging to the class which any one of said Districts would have belonged to if there had been no union.

How effected.

District known as "Dover Public Schools;" and all the rights, powers, privileges and duties prescribed by this Act for free libraries to be established under its provisions, shall immediately vest in the library so transferred, and in the said United School District, and in the Board of Education thereof, and in the local library commission having control thereof precisely as if said free library had been established in said united school districts in the first instance. The members of the local library commission having control of said free library at the time of the passage of this Act shall compose the District Library Commission after such transfer during the respective terms for which they were severally elected.

Free Public Library of Dover transferred to United School District of "Dover Public Schools."

That the free library known as the "Corbit Library" provided for under Chapter CCCCXVI of Volume 11 of the Laws of Delaware be and the same is hereby made a School District Library for the purpose of receiving all benefits provided in Section 17 of this Act, and for the purpose of ascertaining what appropriation said Library shall receive under said Section from the State Treasurer, said Corbit Library shall be deemed and taken to be a library established under the provisions of this Act in a School District of the Third Class; but in all other respects said Corbit Library shall remain and continue as though this Act had not been passed.

Corbit Library made a School District Library of the third class.

OF REFORM SCHOOLS.

AN ACT IN RELATION TO "THE DELAWARE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met (two-thirds of all the members elected to each House of the General Assembly concurring therein):

Corporate
amended.

Section 1. That Chapter 637, Volume 19, of the Laws of Delaware be amended by striking out all of Section 1 after the word "it" in the eleventh line thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "may act as guardian or custodian of any girl under the age of eighteen years who shall be committed to its custody, charge or guardianship according to law, for the physical, mental and moral training of such girl, and during such time as any girl is in the custody, charge or guardianship of this Corporation the guardianship, custody or control of parents, guardians, or any other person whatsoever shall be thereby superseded; and may make such by-laws, rules and regulations and appoint such officers, agents and committees as may be deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Corporation."

Corporation
may receive any girl under 18 years of age.

Section 2. That Chapter 637, Volume 19, of the Laws of Delaware be further amended by striking out all of Section 3 after the figure three in the first line of said Section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "It shall be lawful for the said Corporation, it assenting thereto, to receive into its charge, custody or guardianship any girl under the age of eighteen years, when committed thereto in any one of the following modes:

Modes of commitment.

Complaint of parent, guardian or constable.

"First. A parent, guardian or next friend of any girl under the age of eighteen years, or any constable or police officer, or any three respectable persons, may complain to the Judge of any Municipal Court in this State, or to any Justice of the Peace of any County in this State, alleging that such girl, by reason of incorrigible or vicious conduct, cannot be controlled, or that she is leading an idle and immoral, or vicious life, or that she has been found in circumstances of manifest danger of falling into habits of vice or immorality, and request that she may be committed to the charge, custody or guardianship of the said Corporation; upon due proof of the facts alleged in such complaint, and it appearing that the welfare of such girl requires it, the Judge or Justice of the Peace, may, with the assent thereto of said Corporation, commit such girl to its charge, custody or guardianship until discharged by the said Corporation according to its rules and regulations."

"Second. When it shall appear to the Judge of any Municipal Court in this State or any Justice of the Peace of any county of this State, upon complaint made as aforesaid, and satisfactory proof of the allegations therein contained, that any girl under the age aforesaid, in consequence of vagrancy or other improper conduct is a proper subject for the charge, custody or guardianship of said Corporation, and that the parent, guardian or other person having the charge or custody of such girl is, from moral depravity or otherwise, incapable of exercising or neglects to exercise the proper care and discipline over her, such Judge or Justice of the Peace may, with its assent, commit her to the charge, custody or guardianship of said Corporation until discharged by the said Corporation according to its rules and regulations."

"Third. Any girl under the age of eighteen years may, with its assent, be committed to the charge, custody or guardianship of said Corporation, by the Court of General Sessions in and for any County of this State, the Judge of any Municipal Court in this State or by any Justice of the Peace of this State, upon conviction of vagrancy or other criminal offense before them, or upon acquittal of such girl, if the Court, Judge or Justice of the Peace, upon testimony, shall consider her a proper subject for the said Corporation; such commitment shall be until discharged by the said Corporation according to its rules and regulations; and any girl under the age aforesaid, against whom a crime, other than murder or arson, is charged before a Grand Jury, if the charge is supported by sufficient evidence to put her on trial, on the recommendation of the Grand Jury and without presenting an indictment, may, with the assent of said Corporation, be committed by the Court to the charge, custody or guardianship of said Corporation until discharged by the said Corporation according to its rules and regulations."

"All girls, committed to the charge, custody or guardianship of said Corporation, shall remain wholly subject to such charge, custody or guardianship wheresoever they may be placed by said Corporation, in private homes or elsewhere, or wheresoever they may be found, until discharged by it according to its rules and regulations."

Section 3. That Chapter 637, Volume 19, of the Laws of Delaware be further amended by striking out all of Section 4 after the figure four.

Any inmate guilty of act or insubordination may upon application to court be transferred to New Castle County Work House.

Section 4. That Chapter 637, Volume 19, of the Laws of Delaware be further amended by striking out all of Section 5 after the figure five in the first line of said Section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "If any girl in the charge, custody or guardianship of said Corporation shall be guilty of an attempt to set fire to any building, or to any combustible matter for that purpose, or of openly resisting the lawful authority of any officer or agent of said Corporation, or of attempting to incite others to do so, or shall by gross or habitual misconduct exert a dangerous and pernicious influence over the girls so in charge, custody or guardianship of said Corporation, the said Corporation when such case arises may through its proper officers submit a written statement of the facts to the Court of General Sessions of the State of Delaware in and for New Castle County, or, if the said Court is not in session, to the Associate Judge resident in New Castle County, and apply for an order authorizing a temporary confinement of such delinquent in the New Castle County Work House."

Term of confinement in Work House may be extended by Court.

"The said Court or Judge shall forthwith inquire into the facts, and if it appears that the allegations in said statement are substantially true, and that the ends desired to be accomplished by the said Corporation will be best promoted thereby, the Court or Judge shall make an order authorizing the confinement of such delinquent in said Work House for a time to be limited and expressed in the order; and the Board of Trustees of said Work House shall receive such delinquent and detain her during the time expressed in such order."

"At the expiration of the time limited, or sooner if the said Court or Judge shall so order upon a further application, the Board of Trustees of said Work House shall, with the assent of said Corporation, return such delinquent to the charge, custody or guardianship of the said Corporation." At expiration of term of confinement to be returned to Corporation.

Section 5. That Chapter 637, Volume 19, of the Laws of Delaware be further amended by striking out all of Section 6 after the figure six in the first line of said Section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The said Corporation shall cause the girls under its charge to be instructed in the branches of useful knowledge adapted to their age and capacity, and in household employment, needlework and such other forms of industry as may be suited to their sex, age, strength and disposition, and as may be best adapted to secure their improvement and future welfare. The said Corporation shall have regard to the character of those to whom the girls are entrusted, either in private homes or elsewhere, that they may secure to them the benefits of good example, wholesome instruction, improvement in virtue and knowledge, and the opportunity to become intelligent, moral and useful members of society." Powers and duties of Corporation.

"The authority and duties conferred or imposed by this Act upon said Corporation may be exercised and discharged by said Corporation or by such of its officers, committees or agents provided for herein, or provided for in any by-laws, rules or regulations adopted by it, as shall be severally charged therewith."

Section 1. That a State Board of Examiners, known as the "State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners," is hereby established, to consist of three members, each of whom shall, at the time of his appointment, have practiced veterinary medicine for at least five years immediately preceding such appointment, shall be a graduate of a reputable veterinary college or colleges and shall be of good standing in the veterinary profession. The members of the said board shall be appointed by the Governor of the State of Delaware for terms of three years, beginning on the first Monday in June after their appointment, and shall continue in office until their successors are appointed and duly qualified. All vacancies in said board, however happening, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor for a full three years term, beginning with the date of such appointment. On the expiration of the terms of any appointees to said board, the Governor shall appoint successors to said members whose terms thus expire, so that at all times the board may have a full complement of membership.

Section 2. The first meeting of said State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners shall be held on the first Monday in June, A. D. 1903, at an hour and place to be mutually agreed upon by the members of said Board. At said first meeting of said board an organization shall be effected by the election from their own membership of a President, Secretary and Treasurer. Said Board shall have power, from time to time, to adopt such by-laws and regulations as they may deem expedient to carry into effect the provisions of this Act.

OF VETERINARIANS.

Section 3. Said Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners shall hold at least two specified meetings in each year for the examination of proposed practitioners of veterinary medicine and surgery in the State of Delaware. Said Board shall give public notice by advertisement in one or more newspapers published in the City of Wilmington in said State, of the time and place of holding such examinations. Said Board may, in its discretion, hold other meetings for the purpose of making such examination at any time within its discretion upon giving like public notice. At said meetings for the holding of such examinations a majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum thereof for the purpose of such examination. By the appointment of said Board any member thereof may be appointed a committee of one to hold such examinations, provided that in every case the said examinations shall be passed upon by at least a majority of said Board. Said examinations may be either written or oral, or both, in the discretion of said Board, and shall cover and include such subjects related to veterinary medicine as said Board shall, by its by-laws, determine. Said Board shall also have power to examine and pass upon the genuineness and sufficiency of all diplomas which shall be presented to them by any applicants for license to practice veterinary medicine within the State of Delaware. When any applicant for license to practice veterinary medicine in this State shall have passed said examination therefore successfully, said Board shall forthwith issue to him a license to so practice. Such license shall be subscribed by the President and Secretary of the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners and be duly recorded in a book to be kept by said Board. Said Book containing the record of said license shall be a public record and open to public inspection by any citizen.

OF ROADS AND BRIDGES.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE PERMANENT IMPROVEMENT OF THE PUBLIC HIGHWAYS IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met:

Section 1. The Governor shall appoint three competent persons,* "one of whom shall be a resident of each County in this State," to serve as, and be known as the Delaware State Highway Commissioners. Their terms of office shall be so arranged and designated by the Governor at the time of their appointment that the term of one member shall expire in one year, one member in two years, and one member in three years from the first day of January, A. D. 1903. The full term of office of each member thereafter shall be for three years and until his successor is appointed, and all vacancies occurring shall be filled by the Governor. All appointments made by virtue of and under the provisions of this Act shall be referred to the Senate of the State of Delaware for confirmation as required by the Constitution.

Governor to appoint three persons to be known as "Delaware State Highway Commissioners."

Terms of office.

To be confirmed by Senate.

They shall each receive in full compensation for their services an annual salary of One Thousand Dollars ($1000), payable in twelve equal monthly instalments, by the State Treasurer out of any moneys appropriated by the General Assembly for the salaries of State officers.

Compensation.

They shall before entering upon their duties of their office and within ten days after their appointment make oath or af-

They shall be provided with an office in the State House or some other suitable place in Dover, with sub-offices in Wilmington and Georgetown, if deemed necessary by the said State Commissioners, in which the records of their said office shall be kept. They may establish rules and regulations for the conduct of business and for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

To be provided with offices.

Duties and powers of Commissioners.

Section 2. The said State Commissioners shall forthwith proceed to investigate and consider the best and most practical methods of construction and maintenance of highways and the estimated cost of the various methods and systems. They shall prepare suitable maps and plans on which shall be clearly drawn the various routes they recommend. They may employ experts from time to time and all necessary clerical and other assistants, and may incur such reasonable expense in this regard from time to time as may be authorized or approved by the Levy Court of the particular county in which said expense is incurred. They shall from time to time estimate the amount of expense required, and shall submit the same to the said Levy Court of the county as aforesaid for its approval, and no expense shall be incurred by the State Commissioners beyond the amount so estimated and approved. They shall, after due notice, hold at least one public meeting annually in each county in this State, for the purpose of giving advice upon and discussing freely all matters pertaining to public highways.

Commissioners
to keep records and prepare biennial report to General Assembly.

Section 3. The said State Commissioners shall keep a record of all proceedings, orders, petitions, plans, specifications, and full and complete accounts of all money expended by the State or Counties or Hundreds or property owners for the improvements of any highway or section thereof under the provisions of this Act, and they shall prepare a biennial report of all their doings, together with any suggestions or recommendations they may deem desirable, and shall submit the same to the General Assembly during the first ten days of each regular biennial session thereof.

They shall certify to the State Treasurer and to the Levy

Court of the County in which any highway or section thereof is improved under the provisions of this Act an itemized account of all money expended under the provisions of this Act, and shall draw their warrant upon the said State Treasurer for a sum equal to one-half of the cost of the construction of said highway or section thereof, (this being the portion of said cost to be paid by the State under the provisions of this Act as hereinafter stated) and they shall certify to the Levy Court of the particular County as aforesaid, the said County's share of the said cost as hereinafter provided, and no money shall be paid out by the said State Treasurer or by the Levy Court of any of the Counties under the provisions of this Act until said certificate of expense has been filed, and said warrant so drawn by the said State Commissioners.

To certify to State Treasurer itemized account of expenditures.

Section 4. Whenever the Levy Court of any County in this State shall, by resolution, have declared their intention to cause any particular highway or section thereof, within said County to be improved under the provisions of this Act, a certified copy of such resolution shall be forthwith submitted to the said State Commissioners and it shall thereupon become the duty of the said State Commissioners to make and they are hereby directed to have such surveys and plans of said highway made as provided in Section 2 of this Act, and submit the same to the said Levy Court of the particular County in which the said work is to be done, together with their recommendations thereon, and if approved by the said Levy Court, after having been recommended and approved by the said State Commissioners, then the said State Commissioners shall proceed as soon as may be with said work and improvement, in accordance with the plans and specifications as approved by the said State Commissioners and also by the said Levy Court as aforesaid.

Resolution of Levy Court to improve road to be certified to Commissioners.

Commissioners to have surveys and plans made to be submitted to Levy Court.

If the said State Commissioners shall disapprove said resolution after due and careful consideration they shall certify their reasons therefore fully in presenting the same to the Levy Court in each case, and in no case shall State aid be applied to the improvement of any highway or section thereof, under the provisions of this Act, unless approved by said State Commissioners and also approved by the said Levy Court of the particular County as aforesaid.

State aid not to be given against approval of Commissioners.

Section 5. After the reception of any such resolution by the said State Commissioners and the approval of the same together with said plans and specifications both by the said State Commissioners and also by the Levy Court, as provided for in Section 4 of this Act, the said State Commissioners shall advertise for bids for the construction and improvements of the said highway according to the said plans and specifications (provided always that one-half the cost of constructing said highway or section thereof as the case may be, together with one-half the cost of the construction of all other highways, or sections thereof, which have been previously petitioned for and approved as provided for in this Act, upon which improvement has been made or is to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, does not exceed the appropriation made by the General Assembly for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act) for three successive weeks in two newspapers of the County, and in such other papers as they shall deem of advantage for securing fair competition, and such advertisement shall set forth the amount of bond or certified check required of each bidder for the good faith of his proposal, the place where the plans and specifications may be examined, and the time and place for the reception of bids.

All bills to be accompanied by bond for faithful performance of work.

Bills to be publicly read.

Every bid thus received shall be accompanied with a bond signed by the bidder, with one or more sureties satisfactory to the State Commissioners and also to the said Levy Court, as aforesaid, or a certified check upon some reliable bank or banking institution, in such sum as the said State Commissioners and the said Levy Court may determine, and conditioned that if the contract shall be awarded to the said bidder he will, when required by the said State Commissioners, execute a proper agreement with surety, as hereafter provided, for the faithful performance of said contract according to the said plans and specifications when the first bond or certified check may be returned to the bidder. All bids so submitted shall be publicly read at a meeting of the Levy Court at the time and place for opening the same as stated in said advertisement and referred to the said State Commissioners and also to the Levy Court for their final approval.

Rejection of bids.

The said Levy Court or State Commissioners may reject any or all bids if in their opinion good cause exists therefor, but otherwise the said Levy Court shall award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder. The successful bidder shall give satisfactory evidence of his ability to perform the contract and shall also furnish a bond for one-third of the amount of the cost of the construction of the work, conditioned that the work shall be performed in accordance with the plans and specifications and terms of the contract, as hereinbefore provided, said bond also to be an indemnity against any direct or indirect damages that may be suffered or claimed during the construction of said highway or section thereof, and until the same shall be duly accepted as herein provided.

Successful bidder to give bond.

In no case shall the State of Delaware or any County thereof be liable for any damages claimed or suffered in such case.

Section 6. Separate specifications for the improvements of the highways or sections thereof, under the provisions of this Act, shall be made for macadam, telford, gravel, oyster shells or other good firm materials, which will at all seasons of the year be firm, smooth and convenient for travel.

Specifications.

Such specifications shall be the standard for the manner in which work must be done in using the different classes of material as may be elected for the highways so to be improved.

The permanent roadways of all highways improved under the provisions of this Act shall not be less than twelve (12) nor more than sixteen (16) feet between the shoulders, and a minimum width of the right of way shall be thirty-three (33) feet, except in the case of roads already existing.

Width of road improvement.

Section 7. Partial payments may be made on account of said contracts provided for under this Act and paid in the manner herein prescribed when certified to by the said State Commissioners not exceeding eighty per centum of the full value of the work done prior to said payment; and in every contract made as aforesaid it shall be specified that at least five percentum of the contract price shall not be paid to the contractor within the period of one year after the work specified to be done by such contract shall have been fully performed and accepted by the said Levy Court and the State Commissioners; and all said contracts entered into under the provisions of this Act, shall provide for the full maintenance and keeping in repair of all highways or sections thereof as built under said contract or contracts, for the period of one year from the date of completion and acceptance at the entire cost of the contractor.

Payments, partial on account of contracts.

Five per cent of contract price not to be paid within one year.

Contracts to be filed.

Section 8. All contracts made under the provisions of this Act, shall, on behalf of the Levy Court of the particular County in which the work is to be done, be executed by the President thereof; each contract shall be executed in triplicate, one copy to be filed with the State Treasurer, one with the said State Commissioners, and one with the Comptroller of New Castle County, in case such work is to be done therein, or if in either Kent or Sussex Counties with the Clerk of the Peace of said Counties, before any work under said contract is begun.

Decision of Commissioners
in matters of contracts to be final.

Section 9. After the contract has been filed as hereinbefore provided the said State Commissioners shall take entire charge of the work done under said contract and their decisions upon all matters pertaining to said contracts shall be final.

To appoint
Supervisor.

They shall as soon as practicable appoint a supervisor of the construction of the work under such contract, who shall receive for his services under this Act, three dollars ($3.00) per day to be paid out of the County Treasury of the County in which said work is done.

Commissioners
may remove Supervisor.

Duty of Supervisor.

The said State Commissioners shall then appoint any person whom they may consider competent for such position; the said State Commissioners may, however, at any time summarily discharge any supervisor who in the judgment of the said State Commissioners is incompetent or who neglects his duty, and in such case shall appoint a new supervisor to take the place of the one so discharged; the supervisor shall supervise all work done under said contract; shall give his whole time thereto, shall require the provisions of the contract to be strictly adhered to by the contractor, and in any case where the contract provided for partial payments during the progress of the work he shall also, as each payment becomes due, and before payment shall be made, present to the Levy Court and to the said State Commissioners a certificate, and also a certificate of the surveyor or engineer, if any there be, stating as near as may be the total amount of work done, and that such work has been done in all respects as required by the contract; the Levy Court of each county shall have power to appropriate such sums of money for the purpose of carrying on such work as may from time to time become necessary; and when the work shall be fully completed, and the terms and conditions of the contract shall have been fully complied with, and such facts shall have been certified to the said Levy Court and the said State Commissioners to their satisfaction by the supervisor and the surveyor and engineer, if any there be, payment in full shall be made, less the amount required to be withheld for the period of at least one year, as in Section 7 of this Act is specified; and when the work under any contract shall have been fully completed, it shall be the duty of the supervisor to prepare a detailed and itemized statement in duplicate of the cost of the improvements, one copy whereof shall be filed with said Levy Court and one with the said State Commissioners.

Section 10. One-half of the cost of all highways constructed in this State under this Act shall be paid for out of the State Treasury; Provided, that the amount so paid shall not in any one year exceed the sum appropriated by the General Assembly for such purpose; if one-half of such cost shall appear by the statements filed in any one year with the said State Commissioners to exceed the sum appropriated as aforesaid, then, and in such event, the sum so appropriated shall be apportioned by the said State Commissioners amongst the counties of the State in proportion to the cost of roads constructed therein for such year, as shown by the statements of cost filed in the office of the State Commissioners as is deemed equitable and just by said Commissioners; the said State Commissioners shall "between June fifteenth and thirtieth and also"* between December fifteenth and thirty-first, in each year, certify to the State Treasurer the amount to be paid to each county for such half-year, and the said State Commissioners shall thereupon draw their warrants in favor of the respective counties for the sums certified as aforesaid upon the State Treasurer (as provided in Section 3 of this Act), who shall pay the same out of any moneys in the State Treasury appropriated to the purposes of this Act.

Section 11. On or before June thirtieth in each and every year, it shall be the duty of the Levy Court of each county to ascertain one-half of the estimated cost of all work for which contracts shall have been awarded under this Act during such year, and the said Levy Court shall include the sums so ascertained in the annual tax budget for the succeeding year as a part of the fund necessary to be raised by general taxation for the succeeding year as aforesaid. That each person serving on any such jury of view, shall be allowed the sum of three dollars for each day necessarily employed thereon, and the said jury shall fix the compensation of the stenographer and surveyor employed by them, all of which costs, together with the damages which shall be assessed as aforesaid, shall be paid by the Levy Court of the petitioner's County, immediately upon the confirmation or setting aside of the return of the said jury of view, as other claims against such county are paid; Provided, however, that if the jury of view shall condemn such turnpike road, then the person or persons filing exceptions thereto and making application for a review, shall pay the costs of the proceedings immediately preceding such application, before any such order shall be granted.

Of surveyor and stenographer.

Paid by Levy Court.

Confirmation of return to establish same as public road. Section 7. That the effect of confirmation of a return of any jury of view condemning any turnpike road, or any part thereof, shall be to establish, as a public road, any such turnpike road, or part thereof so condemned and to settle the damages assessed.

OF ROADS AND BRIDGES.

Section 8. That when any turnpike road, or portion thereof, shall have been condemned, under the provisions of this act, for public use, free of tolls or toll-gates, and the assessment of the damages therefor, shall have been paid as hereinbefore provided, such turnpike road, or part thereof, shall be properly repaired and maintained at the expense of the county or hundred in which said turnpike road, or part thereof is located, as other public roads are by law repaired and maintained.

To be maintained thereafter as public road.

Section 9. That if at any time any proceedings are instituted under the provisions of this Act any railway company shall have its rails and tracks laid along and upon such turnpike road and is engaged in the actual operation of such railway line whether operated by electricity or otherwise, steam power excepted, then in that event, the proceedings under this Act shall not in any wise affect the rights, powers and privileges of such railway company in, on and to said turnpike road, but all the rights, powers and privileges of such railway company in, on and to said turnpike road shall be preserved, secured and confirmed and this Act shall not in any wise be construed to curtail or diminish the rights, powers and privileges of such company, in, on and to such turnpike road. A railway company within the meaning of the provision of this section shall be construed to be a company on whose road the cars, carriages and coaches are propelled by electricity, by cable, motor or by any improved motor power other than steam.

Proceedings not to affect interest of any railway company thereon.

corporation in such manner and under such regulations as the by-laws provide; provided, however, that no stock or bonds issued by any corporation organized under this Act shall be taxed by this State when the same shall be owned by non-residents of this State, or by foreign corporations. Whenever any transfer of shares shall be made for collateral security, and not absolutely, it shall be so expressed in the entry of the transfer.

Transferable.

Bonds of foreign stockholders not taxable by this State.

Collateral transfer.

Section 17. Unless otherwise provided in the charter, certificate or by-laws of the corporation, each stockholder, whether resident or non-resident, shall at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of the capital stock held by him but no proxy shall be voted on after three years from its date; nor shall any share of the stock be voted on at any election which has been transferred on the books of the corporation within twenty days next preceding such election.

Voting of stockholders.

One vote for each share of capital stock.

Section 18. Persons holding stock in a fiduciary capacity shall be entitled to vote the shares so held, and persons whose stock is pledged shall be entitled to vote, unless in the transfer by the pledgor on the books of the corporation he shall have expressly empowered the pledgee to vote thereon, in which case only the pledgee, or his proxy may represent said stock and vote thereon.

Voting stock held by fiduciary or pledged stock.

Section 19. Shares of stock of the corporation belonging to the corporation shall not be voted upon directly or indirectly.

Stock owned by corporation not to be voted.

Section 20. When the whole capital stock of a corporation shall not have been paid in, and the assets shall be insufficient to satisfy the claims of its creditors, each stockholder shall be bound to pay on each share held by him the sum necessary to complete the amount of the par value of such share as fixed by the charter of the company or its certificate of incorporation, or such proportion of that sum as shall be required to satisfy the debts of the company, which said sum or proportion thereof may be recovered as provided for in Section 49 of this act as amended, after a writ of execution against the corporation has been returned unsatisfied, as provided for in Section 51 of this Act as amended.

Liability of stockholders, for assessment on unpaid stock to pay debts.

Section 21. When any corporation is authorized to commence business, the directors may, if its whole capital stock has not been subscribed, open books for additional subscriptions to its capital stock.

Additional subscriptions to pay capital stock.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING CORPORATIONS.

Payment of capital stock.	The capital stock of a corporation shall be paid in such amounts and at such times as the directors may require. And the directors may, from time to time, assess upon each share of, stock not fully paid up, such sum of money as the necessities of the business may, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, require, not exceeding in the whole the balance remaining unpaid on said stock, up to the par value thereof, and such sum so assessed shall be paid to the Treasurer at such times and by such installments or calls as the directors shall direct, the said directors having given at least thirty days' notice of the time and place of such payments in a newspaper of the county in this State where such corporation is established, or has its principal place of business, or by written notice mailed at least thirty days before the time for such payment, to each stockholder at his last known post office address.

written request of any creditor or stockholder of such corporation make a certificate stating the amount of the installments or calls paid in cash or by the purchase of property, stating also the total amount of capital stock issued, which certificate shall be signed, and sworn or affirmed to by the President and Secretary or Treasurer, and they shall within thirty days after the making of such certificate or certificates cause the certificate to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

Certificate of payment of capital stock to be filed upon written request of creditor or stockholder.

Section 24. If any of the said officers shall neglect or refuse to perform the duties required of them in the preceding section for thirty days after written request so to do by a creditor or stockholder of the corporation, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all its debts contracted after the making of such payments as provided for in the preceding section and before the filing of such certificate.

Liability of officers for failure to file certificate of payment of capital stock.

Section 25. It shall be lawful for the incorporators of any corporation, before the payment of any part of its capital, to file with the Secretary of State an amended certificate, duly signed by the incorporators named in the original certificate of incorporation, and duly acknowledged in the manner in this Act required for certificates of incorporation, in this Act heretofore provided for, modifying, changing, or altering its original certificate of incorporation in whole or in part; and said Secretary of State shall furnish a certified copy of said certificate under his hand and seal of office, and said certified copy shall be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the county in which its original certificate of incorporation was recorded; said amended certificate shall take the place of the original certificate of incorporation, and shall be deemed to have been filed and recorded on the date of the filing and recording of the original certificate, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall permit the insertion of any matter not in conformity with the provisions of this Act.

1. If the corporation has a capital stock, its board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment proposed, declaring its advisability, and calling a meeting of the stockholders for consideration thereof. Said meeting shall be called and held upon such notice as the corporation's charter or by-laws provide, and in the absence of such provision, upon notice thereof, either delivered to the stockholder or mailed to the stockholder's post office address, if known, at least ten days before the date fixed for said meeting. At said meeting, a vote of the stockholders by ballot, in person or by proxy, shall be taken for and against the proposed amendment, which vote shall be conducted by two judges appointed for that purpose either by the directors or by the said meeting. Said judges shall decide upon the qualification of voters, and when the vote is completed, count and ascertain the number of shares voted respectively for and against said amendment, and declare whether the persons or bodies corporate holding the majority of the stock of said corporation (or of each class of stock, if there be more than one) have voted for or against the proposed amendment; and shall make out certificates accordingly in duplicate, stating the number of shares of stock voted for and against the amendment respectively, and subscribe and deliver the same to the secretary of the corporation. If it shall appear by said certificates of the judges that the persons or bodies corporate holding the majority of the stock of said corporation (or of each class of stock, if there be more than one) have voted in favor of the amendment, thereupon, the said corporation shall make, under its corporate seal, and the hands of its President and Secretary, a certificate accordingly, and the President shall duly execute the same before an officer authorized by the laws of this State to take acknowledgments of deeds; and the said certificate, so executed and acknowledged with one of the said judge's duplicate certificates attached, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and a copy thereof certified by said Secretary of State shall be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the County in which the original charter of incorporation is recorded; or if the corporation shall have been created by special public act of the Leg-sent, together with a list of the names and residences of the directors and officers, certified by the president and secretary and treasurer, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who, upon being satisfied by due proof that the requirements aforesaid have been complied with, shall issue a certificate that such consent has been filed, and the Board of Directors shall cause such certificate to be published four weeks successively, at least once a week, in a newspaper published in said county; and upon the filing in the office of the Secretary of State of an affidavit of the manager or publisher of the said newspaper that said certificate has been published four weeks successively, and at least once a week, in said newspaper, the corporation shall be dissolved.

Certificate thereof, &c., to be filed.

Publication of certificate of dissolution.

Whenever all the stockholders shall consent in writing to a dissolution, no meeting or notice thereof shall be necessary, but on filing said consent in the office of the Secretary of State, he shall forthwith issue a certificate of dissolution, which shall be published as above provided.

Waiver of notice.

Section 40. All corporations, whether they expire by their own limitation, or are otherwise dissolved, shall, nevertheless, be continued for the term of three years from such expiration or dissolution bodies corporate for the purpose of prosecuting and defending suits by or against them, and of enabling them gradually to settle and close their business, to dispose of and convey their property, and to divide their capital stock, but not for the purpose of continuing the business for which said corporation shall have been established.

Continuance of corporate existence for closing business of corporation.

Section 41. Upon the dissolution of any corporation under the provisions of Section 39 of this Act as amended, the directors, or the governing body, by whatever name it may be known, shall be trustees thereof, with full power to settle the affairs, collect the outstanding debts, sell and convey the property, real and personal, and divide the moneys and other property among the stockholders, after paying its debts.

Directors of corporation upon dissolution thereof to be trustees, &c.

Section 42. The persons constituted trustees as aforesaid shall have authority to sue for and recover the aforesaid debts and property, by the name of the trustees of such corporation, describing it by its corporate name, and shall be sueable by the same name for the debts owing by such corporation at the time of its dissolution, and shall be jointly and severally responsible

Section 45. The said trustees or receivers after payment of all allowances, expenses and costs, and the satisfaction of all special and general liens upon the funds of the corporation to the extent of their lawful priority, shall pay the other debts due from the corporation, if the funds in their hands shall be sufficient therefor, and if not, they shall distribute the same ratably among all the creditors who shall prove their debts in the manner that shall be directed by an order or decree of the Court for that purpose; and if there shall be any balance remaining after the payment of such debts and necessary expenses, they shall distribute and pay the same to and among those who shall be justly entitled thereto, as having been stockholders of the corporation, or their legal representatives.

No abatement of action by reason of dissolution.

Section 46. If any corporation organized under this Act becomes dissolved by the expiration of its charter or otherwise, before final judgment obtained in any action pending or commenced in any Court of Record of this State, against any such corporation, the said action shall not abate by reason thereof, but personally; or the person to whom they are liable may have his remedy by bill in Chancery.

Action of officers against corporation for debts, etc., paid.

Section 50. When any officer, director or stockholder shall pay any debt of a corporation for which he is made liable by the provisions of this Act, he may recover the amount so paid, in an action against the corporation for money paid for its use, and in which action only the property of the corporation shall be liable to be taken, and not the property of any stockholder.

Directors not liable to suit until judgment against corporation returned unsatisfied.

Section 51. No suit shall be brought against any director or stockholder for any debt of a corporation organized as aforesaid, of which he is such director or stockholder, until judgment be obtained therefor against such corporation and execution thereon returned unsatisfied.

Inventory to be filed by receivers and trustees.

Section 52. Receivers or trustees shall, as soon as convenient, file in the office of the Register in Chancery of the county in which the corporation's principal place of business is, a full and complete inventory of all the estate, property and effects of the corporation, its nature and probable value, and an account of all debts due from and to it, as nearly as the same can be ascertained, and make a report to the Court of their proceedings, whenever and as often as the Court shall direct.

Creditors shall make proof under oath of claims against corporation.

To file same within six months.

Failure thereof may bar in distribution of assets.

Section 53. All creditors shall make proof under oath of their respective claims against the corporation, and cause the same to be filed in the office of the Register in Chancery of the county in which the corporation's principal place of business is, within six months from the date of the appointment of a receiver or trustee for such corporation, or sooner if the Court shall order and direct, and all creditors and claimants failing to do so, within the time limited by this Act, or the time prescribed by the order of the Court may, by direction of the Court be barred from participating in the distribution of the assets of the corporation; the Court may also prescribe what notice, by publication or otherwise, shall be given to creditors of the time fixed for the filing and making proof of said claim.

Register in Chancery to notify Receiver of claims filed.

Section 54. It shall be the duty of the Register in Chancery, immediately upon the expiration of the time fixed for the filing of claims, in compliance with the provisions of the preceding section of this Act, to notify the receiver or trustee of the filing of said claims, and it shall be the duty of said receiver or trustee within thirty days after receiving said notice, to inspect said claims, and if said trustee or any creditor shall not be satisfied with the validity or correctness of the same, or any of them, said receiver or trustee shall forthwith notify the creditors, whose claims are disputed, of his decision; the said receiver or trustee shall require all creditors whose claims are disputed to submit themselves to such examination in relation to their claims as the receiver or trustee shall direct, and such creditors shall produce such books and papers relating to their claims as shall be required; and the receiver or trustee shall have power to examine, under oath or affirmation, all witnesses produced before him touching the claims, and shall pass upon and allow or disallow the claims, or any part thereof, and notify the claimants of his determination.

Duty of Receiver as to disputed claims.

Provided, however, that every creditor or claimant, when he shall have received notice from said receiver or trustee, that he is not satisfied with the said claim as filed in the office of the Register in Chancery, shall have the right, within ten days thereafter, to demand that the said receiver or trustee shall certify the said claim to the Court of Chancery, which Court shall have jurisdiction to pass upon the said claim as presented, and to determine the rights of the claimant, and to make such order or decree touching the same as shall be equitable and just; and provided, further, that when any creditor or claimant shall submit himself to such examination in relation to his claim, as the receiver or trustee shall direct, and the receiver or trustee shall pass upon and allow or disallow such claim, the creditor or claimant so submitting himself, or any other creditor or claimant, shall have the right of appeal to the Court of Chancery, which Court shall hear and determine the rights of the claimant, and shall make such order or decree touching the same as shall be equitable and just.

Appeal of creditor to Chancellor.

Section 55. A receiver shall, upon application by him in the Court in which any suit is pending, be substituted as party plaintiff or complainant in the place and stead of the corporation in any suit or proceeding at law or in equity which was so pending at the time of his appointment; and no action against a receiver of a corporation shall abate by reason of his death, but, upon suggestion of the facts on the record, shall be continued against his successor or against the corporation in case no new receiver is appointed.

Substitution of receiver as party plaintiff in suits.

Section 56. Whenever the property of an insolvent corpora-

Lien of employees. Section 57. Whenever any corporation, formed under the provisions of this Act, shall become insolvent, the employees doing labor or service of whatever character in the regular employ of such corporation, shall have a lien upon the assets thereof for the amount of the wages due to them, not exceeding two months' wages respectively, which shall be paid prior to any other debt or debts of said corporation; but the word "employees" shall not be construed to include any of the officers of such corporation.

Compensation of receiver. Section 58. The Court of Chancery shall, before making distribution of the assets of an insolvent corporation, among the creditors or stockholders thereof, allow a reasonable compensation to the receiver or trustee for his services, and the costs and expenses incurred in and about the execution of his trusts, and the costs of the proceedings in said Court, to be first paid out of said assets.

Merger of consolidation of corporations. Section 59. Any two or more corporations organized under the provisions of this Act, or existing under the laws of this State, for the purpose of carrying on any business, may consolidate into a single corporation which may be either one of said consolidated corporations, or a new corporation to be formed by means of such consolidation; the directors, or a majority of them, of such corporation, as desire to consolidate, may enter into an agreement signed by them, and under the corporate seals of the respective corporations, prescribing the terms and conditions of consolidation, the mode of carrying the same into effect, and stating such other facts as are necessary to be set out in Articles of Incorporation, as provided in this Act, as well as the manner of converting the shares of each of the old corporations

Section 60. When the agreement is signed, acknowledged, filed and recorded, as in the preceding section is required, the separate existence of the constituent corporations shall cease, and the consolidated corporations shall become a single corporation in accordance with the said agreement, possessing all the rights, privileges, powers and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, and being subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of each of such corporations so consolidated, and all and singular the rights, privileges, powers and franchises of each of said corporations, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, as well for stock subscriptions as all other things in action or belonging to each of such corporations shall be vested in the consolidated corporation; and all property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises, and all and every other interest shall be thereafter as effectually the property of the consolidated corporation as they were of the several and respective former corporations, and the title to any real estate, whether by deed or otherwise, under the laws of this State, vested in either of such corporations, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this Act; provided, that all rights of creditors and all liens upon the property of either of said former corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the respective former corporations shall thenceforth attach to said consolidated corporation, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

Section 61. If any stockholder in either corporation consolidating as aforesaid, who objected thereto in writing, shall within twenty days after the agreement of consolidation has been filed and recorded, as aforesaid, demand in writing from the consolidated corporation payment of his stock, such consolidated corporation shall, within three months thereafter, pay to him the value of the stock at the date of consolidation; in case of disagreement as to the value thereof, it shall be ascertained by three disinterested persons, one of whom shall be chosen by the stockholder, one by the directors of the consolidated corporation and the other by the two selected as aforesaid; and in case the said award is not paid within sixty days from the making thereof, and notice thereof given to said stockholder and said consolidated corporation, the amount of the award shall be evidence of the amount due by said corporation, and may be collected as other debts are

Section 66. Sales of the property and franchises of such corporations that may be sold under a decree of Court shall be made after such notice of the time and place as the Court may deem proper; and if such sales are made in the foreclosure of one or more mortgages, the Court may order such sale to be made for the whole amount of the outstanding bonds and interest secured by such mortgage or mortgages, or if the property and franchise will produce so much, then for the amount of interest due under said mortgage or mortgages, subject to the payment by the purchaser of the outstanding bonds and interest secured thereby as they become due; and in the latter event may, by proper orders, secure the assumption thereof by the purchaser; but when a sale shall be ordered to be made, subject as aforesaid, the Court shall direct the officer making such sale, in the event that the property and franchises offered do not sell for enough to pay the amount aforesaid, to sell the same free from encumbrances. Sales under this section shall be made on such credits as the court may deem proper.

Failure to commence business for two years to forfeit charter.

Section 67. Any corporation organized under this Act shall forfeit all rights, privileges and franchises obtained thereunder, if it shall fail, for two years after its organization, to commence in good faith the business, or to promote the objects or purposes for which it was organized.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING CORPORATIONS.

Section 68. No corporation organized under this Act or existing under the laws of this State, shall be permitted to set up, or rely upon the want of legal organization as a defense to any action against it; nor shall any person transacting business with such corporation, or sued for injury done to its property, be permitted to rely upon such want of legal organization as a defense.

This section shall not be construed to prevent judicial inquiry into the regularity or validity of the organization of the corporation or its lawful possession of any corporate power it may undertake to assert in any other suit or proceeding where its corporate existence or the power to exercise the corporate rights it asserts is challenged, and evidence tending to sustain such challenge shall be admissible in any suit or proceeding.

Section 69. Every corporation organized under this Act, may issue a new certificate of stock in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by it, alleged to have been lost or destroyed, and the directors may, in their discretion, require the owner of the lost or destroyed certificate, or his legal representatives, to give the corporation a bond, in such sum as they may direct, not exceeding double the value of the stock, to indemnify the corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss of any such certificate; a new certificate may be issued without requiring any bond when, in the judgment of the directors it is proper so to do, and when any such corporation shall have refused to issue a new certificate of stock in place of one theretofore issued by it, or by any corporation of which it is the lawful successor, alleged to have been lost or destroyed, the owner of the lost or destroyed certificate or his legal representatives, may apply to the Superior Court of the State of Delaware in and for the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located for an order requiring the corporation to show cause why it should not issue a new certificate of stock in place of the one so lost or destroyed; such application shall be by petition duly verified, in which shall be stated the name of the corporation, the number and date of certificate, if known or ascertainable by the petitioner, the number of shares of stock named therein and to whom issued, and a statement of the circumstances attending such loss or destruction; thereupon said Court shall make an order requiring the corporation to show cause at a time and place therein mentioned, why it should not is-any canal, navigable stream or watercourse between its termini, but in such manner as not unnecessarily to impede the navigation and use thereof; and shall also have power to cross any railroad or railway intervening between such termini and acquire the necessary easement for such crossing either by agreement with the corporation owner thereof or, on failure to agree, by condemnation proceedings in the manner prescribed by Section 81 of this Act as amended. Provided, however, that whenever practicable so to do, the crossing at grade of any railroad or railway shall be avoided, but if not practicable, the crossing may be at grade subject to the further provisions made by this section and in that event it shall be the duty of the corporation whose railroad track or tracks shall cross the track or tracks of such other railroad or railway company, at its own expense to erect and maintain at such crossing a signal tower and signals of a generally approved pattern with an electric warning attachment, and also to maintain an interlocking system with derailing switches, and keep a competent watchman and switchman on duty thereat; and the trains of the crossing company shall come to a full stop at least two hundred feet from the tracks of the railroad or railway crossed; and the trains or cars of the company owning or operating the railroad or railways so crossed at grade shall have precedence and priority of movement over the trains of the company constructing the crossing. And, provided further, that no such grade crossing shall be permitted or effected until the question of the practicability of an overhead or undergrade crossing shall have been considered and determined by the Chancellor, who shall upon the petition or bill of the company desiring to effect such crossing at grade, have full power and jurisdiction upon notice to and answer by the company whose tracks are proposed to be crossed, to hear and determine the matter by an appropriate decree, either refusing or permitting the crossing at grade, and if permitted to prescribe and regulate by such decree the manner and character of the said crossing, together with such safeguards against collisions thereat, in addition to those by this section provided as he may deem proper, with the right of appeal from the Chancellor's decree to the Supreme Court by either party, as in other cases in equity.

Section 91. It shall be lawful for any railroad company of this State, whether created by prior special Act, or under this Act, to consolidate with any other railroad company incorporated under the laws of this State or any other state, or of the United States, whose railroad within or without this State shall connect, or form a continuous line, with the railroad of the company so consolidated. Such consolidation shall be made in the manner and by ^{Consolidation of connecting railroads.} the proceeding in this Act prescribed; and the corporation created thereby shall be possessed of, exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers and privileges which this Act confers upon consolidated companies; and it shall likewise be possessed of, exercise and enjoy all the franchises, rights, powers, privileges, immunities ^{Manner of.} and benefits which any corporation of this State constituent thereof was possessed of or entitled to exercise under its charter or any law of this State; and shall be subject, within this State, to the conditions and restrictions imposed by its charter on any corporation of this State constituent thereof. ^{Powers.}

Section 92. Every railroad corporation formed under this Act shall cause signal boards, well supported by posts, or otherwise, at such heights as to be easily seen by travelers, and not obstructing travel, containing on each side, in capital letters, at least five inches high, the following inscription: "Railroad Crossing," to be placed and constantly maintained, at such public highway where it is crossed by the railroad at the same level; but such board need not be put up in cities or towns, unless required by the authorities thereof. ^{Signal boards.}

Section 93. Whenever, in the opinion of the authorities of any city or incorporated town, the public interest requires that a gate be erected and maintained, or a flagman stationed and kept at the place where any highway or street is crossed, within the corporate limits of such town or city, by any railroad constructed under this Act, they shall give the superintendent or manager of the railroad written notice that the same is required and the corporation shall, within the time prescribed in such notice, erect and maintain at such crossing the style of gate directed in said notice, and keep a man in charge of the same during such hours ^{Gates.}

No passenger car on any railroad of any corporation organized under the provisions of this Act shall be lighted by naphtha or by illuminating oil or fluid made in part of naphtha, or of any oil or fluid which will ignite at a temperature of less than three hundred degrees Fahrenheit.
- Air brake. Section 95. No regular or other passenger train on any railroad constructed under this Act shall be run without an air brake, or some equally effective appliance for controlling the speed of trains, which may be applied by the engineer to each car composing the train, and which shall at all times be kept in good condition and ready for use at the discretion of the engineer.
- Violation of certain provisions. Section 96. Any corporation failing to comply with or violating or permitting any of its employees or agents to violate any of the provisions of Sections 88, 92, 93, 94 and 95 of this Act as amended, shall in addition to subjecting itself to any damages that may be caused by such failure or violation be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be fined for failure or violation, not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.
- Penalty.
- Discrimination in charges, &c., prohibited. Section 97. No railroad or railway corporation organized under this Act shall charge, demand, or receive from any person, company, or corporation for the transportation of passengers or property a greater sum than it shall charge or receive from any other person, company or corporation for like service, from the same place, under like conditions, under similar circumstances, and for the same period of time. For every violation of the provisions of this section such corporation shall be liable to the party suffering thereby in double the entire amount so charged to such party, to be recovered before any court having jurisdiction thereof; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the carriage or handling of persons or property free or at reduced rates for the United States, State or municipal governments, or to or from fairs and exhibitions thereof; or the free carriage of destitute and homeless persons transported by charitable societies and the

which it shall be proved, to his satisfaction, that the said corporation has expended at least the sum of five hundred dollars, nor until there is endorsed on such articles of association, or annexed thereto, an affidavit, made by at least three of the directors named in said articles of association, that the amount of stock required by this section has been in good faith, subscribed and paid in cash as aforesaid, and that it is intended, in good faith, to construct or maintain and operate the railway mentioned in such articles of association, which affidavit shall be recorded with the articles of association as aforesaid.

Section 109. The directors named in said articles of association, may, when such articles of association and affidavit are filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, in case the whole of the capital stock is not before subscribed, continue to receive subscriptions until the whole capital stock is subscribed; at the time of subscribing every subscriber shall pay to the directors ten per centum on the amount subscribed by him, in money, and no subscription shall be received or taken without such payment.

Section 110. That there shall be a board of not less than five directors of every corporation formed under this Act for the purpose of constructing and operating railways, to manage its affairs. Said directors shall be chosen annually in the same manner that is provided for the choosing of directors for railroads as provided in Section 78 of this Act as amended, and the inspectors to hold the first election shall be appointed by the board of directors named in the articles of association; no person shall be a director unless he shall be a stockholder owning stock absolutely in his own right, and qualified to vote at the election at which he shall be chosen; at every election of directors the books and papers of such company shall be exhibited to the meeting and subject to the inspection of those present, provided a majority of the stockholders present shall require it.

Section 111. That within thirty days after the articles of association are filed in the office of the Secretary of State, the directors therein named shall organize by the election of one of their number president; they may also elect a treasurer and secretary and adopt such by-laws as may appear to be proper and right for the government of the corporation.

Said bonds shall also be liable to be redeemed at their face value at any interest bearing period, as hereinafter provided.

Bonds payable at Union National Bank of Wilmington.

Manner of redemption of bonds.

Section 4. The said bonds, principal and interest shall be payable at the Union National Bank of Wilmington, Delaware, out of money from time to time appropriated for that purpose by the said Board of Water Commissioners. The said Board of Water Commissioners is hereby authorized and directed to pay the interest on the said bonds to the said Union National Bank of Wilmington, Delaware, when and as the same shall become due; and the said Board of Water Commissioners is further authorized and directed to pay and redeem at the expiration of the fifth year from the date of the said bonds, fifteen of said bonds at par, and to pay and redeem at the expiration of each and every year thereafter, an additional fifteen of said bonds until the twentieth year when the said Board of Water Commissioners shall pay and redeem the balance of said bonds.

The said Board of Water Commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to apply to the payment of the interest and principal on said bonds, any revenue coming into their hands from the Water Works of the City of Wilmington. The bonds to be redeemed at any time shall be selected by the Board of Water Commissioners by an impartial drawing. Any and all bonds redeemed shall be forthwith cancelled by the City Treasurer and City Auditor, and shall not again be reissued.

Date and number of bonds.

Section 5. All of the said bonds shall bear the same date and shall be numbered from No. 1 to No. 200 inclusive. If coupon bonds shall be issued, the coupons shall bear the engraved signature of the Treasurer of the said City. Any matured coupons shall be detached from the bonds by the City Treasurer and destroyed before delivery to the purchaser or purchasers thereof.

Negotiation of bonds.

Section 6. Said bonds may be sold when and as the said Board of Water Commissioners shall determine, and until sold shall remain in the custody of the City Treasurer. Whenever in the judgment of the said Board of Water Commissioners it shall seem desirable to sell any or all of the said bonds, the said Board of Water Commissioners may sell and dispose of the same on the most advantageous terms possible after having advertised the same in the Public Press, but no commission or other compensation shall be charged or paid to any member of said Board for effecting the sale or negotiation of said bonds.

Disposition of money from sale of bonds.

Section 7. Any money received from the sale of any or all of the said bonds shall be deposited by the City Treasurer to the credit of the Board of Water Commissioners in a separate account, and payments therefrom shall be made in the same manner as other payments by the Board of Water Commissioners, provided that no part of the money thus obtained shall be used by the said Board of Water Commissioners for any purpose other than the construction, erection and equipment of the new reservoir to be located in Brandywine Hundred, New Castle County, to be known as the William T. Porter Reservoir, and for the purchase, construction and equipment of the pipes, mains, filter-plant, clear water basin, buildings and machinery proper for the construction, completion and operation of the said reservoir in connection with the Water Works of the City of Wilmington.

Bonds payable in gold.

Section 8. The principal and interest of the said bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America, equal in weight and fineness to the present standard, and shall contain such provisions not inconsistent with the requirements of this Act, as the said Board of Water Commissioners shall determine.

Expense of preparation of bonds paid by

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE COLLECTION OF TAXES LEVIED AND ASSESSED ON REAL PROPERTY AND PERSONS WITHIN THE TOWN OF NEWARK, DELAWARE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met, two-thirds of each branch thereof concurring :

Section 1. All taxes which may hereafter be assessed or levied on real estate in the town of Newark shall constitute a prior lien thereon for three years from the date when said tax is so assessed and levied and may, with all incidental costs, fees and expense, be collected by a sale thereof as hereinafter provided. The said lien for taxes shall be prior to and satisfied before any recognizance, Mortgage, Judgment, Deed or obligation which the said real estate may become charged with or liable to. But in case of a sale under execution process or by order of any Court of any real estate upon which such tax lien shall exist, such lien shall be transferred to the fund arising from such sale in the hands of the officer or trustee making said sale and the real estate so sold shall be discharged therefrom. Provided, that if said fund arising from said sale shall, not be sufficient to pay and discharge the said tax lien by reason of the said real estate having been sold subject to another or other lien or liens or for any other reason then the unpaid balance of said tax shall remain a lien upon the lands so sold.

Section 2. If any person owning and holding in fee or otherwise said real estate so assessed as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to pay the tax so assessed thereon or any part thereof by the first day of December of the year in which said tax was assessed, the collector of taxes of the council of Newark shall levy and make the same by distress and sale of the delinquents' goods and chattels, said distress and sale shall be made in manner as now provided by the statutes of the State of Delaware in

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE CONSTRUCTION, EXTENSION AND IMPROVEMENT OF SEWERS IN THE TOWN OF DOVER, AND EMPOWERING THE TOWN COUNCIL TO BORROW MONEY TO PAY FOR THE SAME.

Whereas, it is apparent that the town of Dover stands in need of a better system of sewers providing not only for the present, but for the future; and, Preamble.

Whereas, a proper regard for the health of the inhabitants of the town, as well as their property and business interests, require that this work be undertaken as soon as possible; now, therefore, Preamble.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware, in General Assembly met (two-thirds of each Branch thereof herein concurring):

Section 1. That the Town Council of the town of Dover be and is hereby authorized and empowered to construct such sewers and to extend and improve the existing sewers as may seem to them necessary to meet with the requirements of said town, and to that end and for that purpose the Town Council of the Town of Dover is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow on the credit of the said town a sum of money not exceeding Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000), and said sum of money, or as much thereof as may be necessary, shall be used, applied and expended by the Town Council of the town of Dover in the construction, extension and improvement of such sewers as may seem to them necessary to meet with the requirements of said town. Town Council to construct sewers.

To borrow money

Rate of interest.

Time of payment.

Date of bonds. Section 4. The said Bonds shall bear date on the first day of January or of July next succeeding the date when this Act shall go into effect, as hereinafter provided; and the principal thereof shall be payable at The Farmers' Bank of the State of Delaware, at Dover at the expiration of Thirty Years from such date; but the said Bonds, or any number thereof, may be redeemed at the option of the Town Council of the said town after the expiration of five years from the date of the same:

Maturity of bonds.

Option as to redemption. Providing, However, That if the Town Council of the town of Dover shall, at any time after the expiration of five years from the date of said Bonds elect to redeem any of such Bonds, such redemption shall be made on the first day of January and July, and in pursuance of a notice signed by the President of the Town Council of the town of Dover and by the Treasurer of the said town of Dover, published for the space of thirty days in one newspaper published in the City of Wilmington, in this State; one newspaper published in the town of Dover, in this State; and one newspaper in the town of Georgetown, in this State:

Such notice shall indicate the Bonds called, and in making such calls the Town Council shall call the Bonds according to their number, beginning with the lowest number; and the interest on the said "Dover Sewer Bonds" shall cease from the date named in any of said calls for redemption.

Preparation of bonds. Section 5. The Town Council of the town of Dover shall direct and effect the preparation, printing and sale of said Bonds authorized by this Act, at such time or times and on such terms as they may deem expedient, but that all the monies arising from such sale shall be applied to carry into effect the provisions of this Act.

Section 6. The form of said Bonds with the coupons thereto attached shall be prescribed by the Town Council of the town of Dover, and said Bonds shall be signed by the president of the Town Council of the town of Dover and by the Treasurer of the said town, and sealed with the Corporate Seal of the said Corporation, and shall be exempt from State, County and Municipal taxation. Form of bonds.

As said Bonds and coupons thereto attached shall be paid the same shall be cancelled as the said Town Council shall direct.

Section 7. The payment of the interest on said Bonds and the payment of the principal of said Bonds to be issued for the construction, extension and improvement of such sewers, shall be met as provided in "Section 8" of this Act.

Section 8. The said Town Council of the said town of Dover, shall, as soon as practicable after this Act shall go into effect, as hereinafter provided, adopt a plan for said sewer or sewers, as aforesaid, and shall approximate the whole cost of the construction, alteration, improvement or repair of such sewer or sewers; with full power from time to time to adopt other plan or plans, or to alter or change the same. Town Council to adopt a plan of sewers and cost of same.

The said Town Council shall then appoint three freehold residents of said town, who shall constitute a Board of Assessors for the purposes of this Act, at such compensation as shall be fixed by the said Town Council; and all vacancies in the Board occurring by failure to act, resignation, death or otherwise, shall be filled by the said Town Council at any regular or special meeting of said Council, by majority vote of said Council, and the action of a majority of said Board of Assessors shall be as effective as the acts of all. To appoint Board of Assessors.

The members of said Board before entering upon the duties of their Office shall be sworn or affirmed to faithfully and impartially perform their duties. Members to be sworn.

It shall be the duty of the said Board of Assessors as soon after their appointment and qualification as is practicable, to apportion the approximate cost of the construction of said sewer or sewers to be constructed, improved, altered or extended according to such plan, between the said town and the owners of the real estate properties benefitted by such construction, alteration, repair or extension; basing the proportion of said costs to be borne by said town upon the benefits to be received by the said town as a whole.

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

To make return to Town Council.

The said Board of Assessors shall then make return of their action to the said Town Council at any regular or special meeting, and the said Town Council shall thereupon cause the said action or decision of the said Board of Assessors to be advertised in at least one issue of at least one Newspaper published in said town of Dover, and by said advertisement shall name a day, hour and place when the said Town Council will sit to hear appeals from the action or decision of the said Board of Assessors from any citizen or property owner.

Advertisement of return.

Appeal for return.

The said Town Council shall hear and determine said appeal from the action or decision of said Board of Assessors, with full power to change the proportion of the approximate cost of the construction of such sewers to be borne by the said town, as aforesaid, as fixed by the said Board of Assessors, and the action of the said Town Council, or a majority of them on said appeal, shall be final.

Proportion of cost to be borne by the town to be paid by same and tax levied therefor.

The said proportion of the cost of the construction of such sewers to be borne by the town as aforesaid, and as ascertained by the said Board of Assessors and finally determined by the said Town Council, as aforesaid, shall be paid for by the aforesaid Town Council of the said town of Dover out of an annual tax to be levied for that purpose, and to that end and purpose the said Town Council of the town of Dover is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to levy and raise by taxation, annually, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary and requisite to fully carry into force and effect the provisions of this Act for the payment of the said proportional part of the cost of the construction, alteration, repair and improvement of said sewers to be borne by the said town as aforesaid, and as may be ascertained by the said Board of Assessors and finally determined by the said Town Council, as aforesaid.

Manner of collection of tax.

Said taxes shall be levied and collected as other taxes in said town now are, or may hereafter be, and shall be assessed on the head and on property, and shall be in excess of and in addition to the sum or amounts heretofore authorized to be raised by the said town of Dover.

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

After the proportion of the cost of the construction, alteration, repair or extension of the sewer or sewers as aforesaid to be borne by the said town shall have been finally ascertained as aforesaid, the Board of Assessors shall then apportion the remaining proportion of the cost of the construction, alteration, extension and repair of such sewer or sewers among the owners of the properties to be benefited by such sewer or sewers, in the following manner; they shall view all the real estate properties in said town benefited as aforesaid, and shall make a special assessment of the cost of the construction, extension, alteration and improvement of such sewers upon such properties to be known as "The Special Sewer Assessment on Real Estate."

Proportion of cost to be borne by property owners to be fixed by Board of Assessors as "The Special Sewer Assessment on Real Estate."

In making such assessment the Board of Assessors shall take into consideration the benefit which each of said properties is to receive from the proposed sewer or sewers, and shall have power to exempt from assessment altogether any property or properties which the said Board deems will receive no benefit therefrom.

Property taxed and exempted.

The said Board of Assessors shall immediately upon the completion of said assessment make return of their action to the said Town Council at any regular or special meeting, clearly indicating in a written assessment the name or names of the owner or owners and the amount of the assessment made by them upon each of such properties so assessed.

Return of assessment to Town Council.

The Town Council of the said town as soon as conveniently may be after receiving said assessment list shall cause a full and complete transcript of said assessment list to be prepared and hung up in the Post Office in said town, or such other public or convenient place as the said Council may select in said town, where it shall remain for at least ten days thereafter for public inspection; and shall also fix a day, hour and place when the said Town Council will sit to hear and determine any appeals from such assessment.

List to be hung up in post office or other public place for inspection.

Day of appeals.

A notice of the day, hour and place when the said Town Council shall sit to hear and determine said appeals shall be given by advertisement in at least one issue of at least one newspaper published in said town of Dover, at least ten days prior to its sitting, as aforesaid, and at such sitting the said Town Council shall have power to hear and determine all such appeals and to make corrections of, additions to, or alterations in such assessment made by the said Board of Assessors, as aforesaid.

Notice of.

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

Adjournment
of.

The hearing of any said appeals may be adjourned by said Town Council from day to day until all of said appeals shall have been acted upon, and the action of a majority of the members of the Town Council present and sitting on such appeals shall be final and as effectual as though acted upon by all, but not less than a majority of all members constituting such Town Council shall form a quorum to hear and determine any of such appeals.

Board of Assessors not to assess their own properties.

The members of said Board of Assessors shall not assess their own properties, but the same shall be assessed by the members of the Town Council of said town.

Assessments
lien upon property.

That when said assessments shall have been made, as aforesaid, and finally determined by the Town Council as aforesaid, they shall be a lien upon the property upon which they are made, from the date when such assessments are finally determined by the said Town Council, and such liens shall have priority against any lien, encumbrance or conveyance made or suffered by the owner or owners of such properties.

Payment of any part of assessment.

That when such assessment shall have been made and finally determined as aforesaid, the said Town Council shall have the power and authority to call for the payment of any part of said assessment as to them may seem right and proper for the purposes of this Act, and annually thereafter shall make calls for the payment of any part of said assessment as to them may seem right, proper and requisite for the purposes of this Act, until the whole amount of said assessment shall have been called for by said Town Council: Provided, However, that not more than one-fifth of said assessment shall be called by the said Town Council in any one year.

Certified copy of assessment called to be placed in hands of Treasurer of town.

And when any part of said assessment shall have been called for by the Town Council as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the said Town Council to cause to be delivered to the Treasurer of the said town a certified copy of said assessment so made as aforesaid, and upon the delivery of the said certified copy of said assessment to the Treasurer as aforesaid, the share or part of said assessment so called for as aforesaid by the said Town Council shall be immediately due and payable.

The Treasurer of the said town shall thereupon give notice, by advertisements posted in at least five of the most public places in said town, stating the share or part of the assessment called for, and that the same is due and payable, and shall likewise publish such notice in two newspapers of said town for at least two issues.

Treasurer to give notice by advertisement and by publication.

If said assessment be paid within sixty days after the said Treasurer shall have received such certified duplicate of assessment the face of the bill shall be collected, and upon all bills not paid within sixty days after the Treasurer receives said duplicate as aforesaid, interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum shall be charged until the same is paid in full.

Assessment unpaid after sixty days to bear interest at 6 per cent per annum.

If, However, any part of said assessment, so called for as aforesaid, or any part of the amount called for as aforesaid by the said Town Council, shall remain unpaid at the end of five months from the date when the Treasurer of the said town shall receive his certified duplicate as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the President of the Town Council of the said Town of Dover, to issue his warrant, directed to the Treasurer of the said town, commanding him to levy the same, with interest thereon accrued, and all costs thereon, upon the grounds or buildings of such owner so assessed as aforesaid, which said grounds or buildings, or any part thereof, shall be sold by the said Treasurer of the said Town at public auction or vendue, after ten days notice in two newspapers published in said town, and a Deed from the town of Dover, under the hand of the President of the Council of said town, and the Seal of the town thereto affixed, attested by the Clerk of the Town Council of said town, shall convey to the purchaser or purchasers of said grounds or buildings as full and complete a title to the said premises, in fee simple, or otherwise, as if the same were executed by the said owner or owners thereof.

Assessment unpaid after five months to be collected by warrant.

Property to be sold at Public auction.

Conveyance of title.

And it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer of the said town, out of the purchase money of the said premises so sold as aforesaid, to pay all costs arising from said process and sale to the parties entitled thereto respectively, and to retain the amount of such assessment then due, as also the remaining part of said assessment not yet called for by said town, together with any accrued interest thereon as aforesaid. The residue of the said purchase money shall be immediately deposited by the said Treasurer in the Farmers' Bank of the State of Delaware, at Dover, to the credit of the owner or owners of the property so sold.

Costs—how paid.

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

Additional sewers. Section 9. That whenever the Town Council of the town of Dover shall determine that there is need for the construction of additional sewers for said town other than those proposed to be constructed under the first plan or system by them to be adopted, they shall have full power and authority to construct the same.

Additional Powers. They shall likewise have power and authority to appoint additional boards of assessors, when and as the same shall be needed, and the said Board of Assessors shall have all the powers hereinbefore conferred upon said Board. For the construction of such additional sewers the said town council shall have the same power and authority to levy and collect assessments therefor as hereinbefore conferred, and according to the manner hereinbefore provided.

Rights of owners. Section 10. That when any such assessment shall have been made upon any lands and premises as aforesaid, the owner thereof, his heirs or assigns, shall have the right to connect such land with such sewer, under and subject to such rules and regulations as the Town Council of the said town shall from time to time prescribe, upon executing to the said town a release of all damages which may at any time happen to such property in any way resulting from such connection.

Deposit of revenue to account of "The Sewer Fund." Section 11. All revenue derived from this act shall be deposited in some bank or Trust Company to be designated by the said Town Council, to the credit of said town, and said fund shall be known as "The Sewer Fund" and shall be used for the payment of the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued under this act for the redemption of said Bonds, for extensions and improvements of the sewer system for said town, and for the payment of the expenses incident to said sewer system.

Treasurer to give additional bond. Section 12. The Treasurer of the said town of Dover shall give such additional Bond to the town of Dover in such penal sum and with such surety as the said Town Council of said town may from time to time require, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his said Office under this Act, and for the payment to his successor in Office of all sums of money belonging to said town arising by virtue of this Act which may remain in his hands upon a settlement of his accounts, to which said Bond and condition there shall be annexed a warrant of attorney for the confession of judgment for such penalty.

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

Section 13. That whenever the said Town Council shall determine that it is necessary in accordance with any plan that may hereafter from time to time, be adopted, to lay any public sewer across private property, either within or without the corporate limits of the town of Dover, and shall have fixed the compensation thereof, it shall be their duty immediately after the survey and location of the course of said public sewer, to notify, in writing, the owner or owners of the real estate through which said public sewer may run, of their determination to lay the same, and to furnish a general description of the location thereof, and also the amount of the damages or compensation allowed each, and if such owner be not resident of the said town, to notify the holder or tenant of such real estate; but, if there be no holder or tenant of such real estate residing in said town, said notice may be affixed to any part of the premises. If any owner be dissatisfied with the amount of the compensation or damages allowed by the Town Council, as aforesaid, he or she may, within ten days after such notice, as aforesaid, appeal from the said assessment of compensation for damages, by serving a written notice to that effect on the President of the said Council, or the person performing the duties of the President of the said Council for the time being. In order to prosecute said appeal, such owner or owners shall, within ten days after the expiration of the ten days allowed for appeals and upon five days notice to said President of Council, or the person performing the duties of the President of the Council for the time being, make written application to the associate judge of the Superior Court of the State, residing in Kent County, for the appointment of a commission to hear and determine the matter of damages and advantages, and thereupon the associate Judge shall issue a commission, under his hand, directed to five freeholders of the said County, three of whom shall be residents of said town, commanding them to assess the damages, which the owner of the real estate through whose lands the said public sewer shall pass, who shall have notified the said Town Council of their intention to appeal, may incur, by reason thereof, and to make returns of their proceedings to the said associate judge at a time therein appointed. The commissioners named in such commission being first sworn or affirmed as in said commission shall be directed, shall view the premises, and they, or a majority of them, shall assess the damages as aforesaid, and shall make return, in writing, of their proceedings in the premises to the said associate judge,

In the ascertainment and assessment of damages by the freeholders appointed by the associate judge aforesaid, if the damage shall be increased, the costs of the appeal shall be paid by the treasurer of the town out of any monies in his hands belonging to the town, which may arise by virtue of this act, but if said damages shall not be increased, the costs of the appeal shall be paid by the party appealing. The fees to the freeholders shall be two dollars ($2.00) per day to each, which shall be taxed as a part of the costs.

After the damages shall be taxed and ascertained by the freeholders as aforesaid, the Town Council shall have the option to pay the damages assessed within the time aforesaid and proceed with the laying of the said public sewer, or upon the payment of the costs only, may abandon the laying of the proposed sewer.

Additional powers.

Section 14. The said Town Council is hereby authorized and empowered to pass and adopt such rules and regulations as the said Town Council may see proper for regulating, controlling and prescribing the manner in which any sewer or drain constructed by order of, or in charge of said Council shall be used, and the manner in which the connections therewith, or with any private sewer now existing or hereafter to be constructed in any public street, lane or alley in the said town, any house, building, yard or other place shall be made for the keeping of the same in proper repair, and shall prescribe certain fines and penalties for the non-observance of such rules and regulations, said fines to be collected in the same manner that other fines for offence against the ordinances of the town are now or may hereafter be collected.

Section 15. That before this Act shall go into effect it

Form of ballot.

The said Town Council of the said town of Dover is hereby authorized to call at such time as they deem proper a special election for that purpose.

Special election.

In case this Act shall not be approved by a majority of the votes cast at such special election, the said Town Council shall, upon the application of twenty resident freeholders of the said town, call another election provided six months shall have elapsed since any preceding election for the same purpose was held, and so on from time to time other election shall be called and held as the said Town Council may deem proper.

Every freehold resident in said town, above the age of twenty-one years, shall have a right to vote at any such election, and any female resident freeholder above said age, shall have the right to vote at any such election, either in person or by proxy.

Qualification of voters.

Notice of any such election shall be given by the Clerk of said Town Council of the town of Dover, by public notices, posted in at least ten public places in said town of Dover, at least ten days prior to the time of holding any such election.

Notice of election.

The place of voting at such election, the conduct of such election, the counting of ballots, the certifying of results and the like, shall be as the same now are, or hereafter may be provided by law for the regular town election of the said town of Dover.

Method of holding election.

Section 16. The faith of the town of Dover is hereby pledged for the payment of all the Bonds that may be issued under the provisions of this Act.

each, distinguishing the real and personal assessment of each. The said list shall be so arranged that the land, the improvements thereon and the per capita assessments shall appear in separate columns or spaces, and the assessor in making the assessment shall make his valuation accordingly. The said Commissioners shall assess the real estate and person of the Assessor. The said Assessor before entering upon his duties shall be sworn or affirmed by some person authorized by the laws of this State to administer oaths, diligently, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties herein prescribed, to the best of his knowledge, ability and judgment. His compensation shall be fixed and determined by the said Commissioners.

Section 14. The Commissioners now in office shall have the assessment list or duplicate thereof, prepared and revised, according to the method and manner of the present Commissioners and have the same ready to place in the hands of the Commissioners to be elected at the first election held under the provisions of this Act, and within three days after said election.

Assessment to be hung up in public place.

Thereafter the Board of Commissioners, immediately upon receiving the duplicate from the Assessor shall cause a full and complete transcript of the same containing the amount assessed to each taxable, to be hung up in a public place in the said town and there to remain for at least ten days for public inspection. There shall be a notice appended thereto, and also additional notices posted in five or more public places in said town giving notice that upon a certain day mentioned therein, and not earlier than ten days after the date of posting said list and notices, between the hours of one o'clock P. M. and five o'clock P. M. that the Board of Commissioners will hold a Court of Appeals, when they shall hear appeals from said assessment. The decision of the said Commissioners, sitting as a Court of Appeals, shall be final and conclusive, and said Commissioners shall revise and complete said assessment at this sitting. No Commissioners shall sit upon his own appeal but the same shall be heard and determined by the other Commissioners.

Appeals.

The said Commissioners at the first regular meeting in July, having the revised and completed assessment, after having ascertained and determined, according to their best judgment and knowledge, the amount necessary to be raised in the said town for the year, for the purposes mentioned in this Act, shall levy a

OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE TOWN COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF SEAFORD TO ESTABLISH AND MAINTAIN AN ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT IN SAID TOWN TO SUPPLY ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER FOR BOTH PUBLIC AND PRIVATE USE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met (two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch of the Legislature concurring therein):

Section 1. That the Town Council of the Town of Seaford be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to do all things necessary for locating, erecting, constructing, equipping and operating an Electric Light Plant to light the Town of Seaford and to furnish light and power for public and private use to the citizens and to provide for the care and maintenance of the same, and to purchase engines, boilers, dynamos, poles and wires and all such instruments and machines as may be necessary for the purpose of establishing an Electric Light Plant to light the streets of the Town of Seaford and to furnish light and power for public and private use to the citizens thereof, and to effect this object shall have power to lay pipes and erect poles and to erect or lay wires above, under, on, in or along any of the roads, streets, lanes or alleys of the said Town of Seaford or adjacent thereto.

Town Council to erect electric light plant.
Powers of council.

Section 2. And whenever it may be necessary for the Town Council of said Town to enter upon, use, take or excavate any lands of any person or persons whomsoever for constructing, locating, equipping and operating the Electric Light Plant provided for by this Act, or for the purpose of carrying into effect the objects of this Act, it shall be lawful for said Town Council to contract and agree with the owner or owners of any such land for the purchase of any land or lands that may be necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the objects of this Act. Should the owner or owners of any such land or any of them refuse to permit

The said Associate Judge shall have power to fill any vacancy in the commission.

To assess damages.

The amount of damages being so ascertained, the said Town Council of the Town of Seaford may pay or tender the same to the person or persons entitled thereto within one month after the same shall be finally ascertained, or if the person or persons so entitled reside out of or are absent from the said Town during the said period of one month, then the same may be deposited to his or her credit in the First National Bank, or any other responsible bank in Sussex County, within said time and thereupon said property, or and may be taken or occupied for the uses aforesaid. In the ascertainment of damages by the freeholders aforesaid, if the damages shall be increased the cost of the appeal shall be paid by the treasurer of the said Town, but if said damages shall not be increased the cost of the appeal shall be paid by the appellant. The fees of the freeholders shall be two dollars per day each day, which shall be taxed as part of the costs. After the damages shall be fixed and ascertained by the freeholders aforesaid, the said Town Council of the Town of Seaford shall have the option to pay the damages assessed within the time aforesaid, and to proceed with the said improvements, or upon the payment of costs only may abandon their intention of taking and occupying said land or lands for the purpose aforesaid.

 the duties of his office honestly, faithfully, and diligently. It shall be his duty to execute all laws enacted for the government Duty of.
 of said town, and to carry into effect all the orders and directions of the town council made in pursuance of any law of this State, or of any ordinance that the said town council may legally make and establish. He shall have all the powers of the justice of the Powers of.
 peace within the town, and shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of all breaches of the peace and other offences in said town, so far as to arrest and hold to bail or fine and imprison offenders, and also of all fines, forfeitures and penalties which may be prescribed by any law of this State, or by any ordinance of the town council regularly passed and established for the government of the town, and also all neglects, omissions or defaults of any town constable, collector, assessor, treasurer, town clerk or any other officer or person whose duty it may be to collect, receive, pay over or account for any money belonging to said town or to execute or obey any law or ordinance thereof. Provided that he shall not impose any fine exceeding fifty dollars or have jurisdiction in civil matters exceeding one hundred dollars, exclusive of costs. His fees for any services under this section shall be the same as those of a justice of the peace for a like service, and for any service or duty for which no fee may be provided by law, the fee may be established by ordinance of the town council. If

Section 4. The alderman shall, at every stated meeting of the town council, report to the council all fines and penalties imposed by him during the preceding quarter; and pay to the treasurer of the town of Frankford all such fines and penalties received by him during the said time, and in default of making such report or paying such fines and penalties for a period of twenty days after such report should be made and such fines and penalties should be paid as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, by indictment, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Duties of.

Section 5. The duties of the President of Council shall be to preside at the meetings of council, have a general supervision of all the streets, lanes and alleys in said town, and of the persons who may be employed by the town council, receive complaints of nuisances, and other complaints of citizens of violation of laws and ordinances, and present the same to the council at their first meeting for their action, and such infraction or violation of the law or ordinances as require immediate action to cause the same to be proceeded on before the alderman. He shall issue and sign all licenses for every exhibition within the town of Frankford, which by Section 1 of Chapter 51 of the Revised Code a license therefor is required; he shall sign all warrants on the treasurer for the payment of any money, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by any ordinance or ordinances of the town council.

Councilmen and President a corporation.

Rights, powers and duties.

Section 6. The Councilmen and the President of Council, as hereinbefore provided for, shall be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate in law and equity, and shall be able and capable to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in courts of law and equity in this State, by the corporate name of "The Town of Frankford;" and shall have a corporate seal, which they may alter, change, or renew at their pleasure; and may purchase, take, hold and enjoy lands, tenements and hereditaments in fee

Section 7. The town council shall have power, upon the application of ten citizens of the town, by petition for the purpose, to locate, lay out and open, or widen, any new street or streets, lane or lanes, alley or alleys, or widen any street, lane, or alley heretofore laid out or hereafter to be laid out in said town, or reopen any old street or streets, lane or lanes, alley or alleys, now closed or which may hereafter be closed, which ten or more citizens may desire to be located, laid out and opened, or reopened, allowing to the persons respectively through or over whose lands such street or streets, lane or lanes, alley or alleys may pass, such compensation therefor as they may deem just and reasonable under all circumstances; which compensation, if any be allowed, shall be paid by the treasurer of the town out of the moneys of said town, upon warrants drawn upon him by order of the council aforesaid.

Additional
powers as to streets.

Section 8. Whenever the town council shall have determined to locate and lay out, or widen any street, lane or alley, and shall have fixed the compensation therefor it shall be their duty, immediately after the survey and location of the said street, lane or alley, to notify in writing, the owner or owners of the real estate through or over which such street, lane or alley may run of their determination to open and widen the same, and to furnish a general description of the location thereof, also the amount of the damages or compensation allowed to each, and if any such owner be not resident within the said town to notify the holder or tenant of said real estate; but if there be no holder or tenant resident in said town, the said notice may be affixed to any part of the premises. If the owner be dissatisfied with the amount of the compensation or damages allowed by the town council as aforesaid, he or she may, within ten days after such notice as aforesaid, appeal from the said assessment of compensation or damages by serving written notice to that effect to the president of said council. In order to prosecute said appeal such owner or owners shall, within ten days after the expiration of the ten days allowed for appeals, and upon ten days' notice to said president of council make written application to the Associate Judge of the Superior Court of this State, resident in Sussex County, for the appointment of a commission to hear and determine the matter in controversy, and thereupon the said associate judge shall issue a commission, under his hand, directed to five freeholders of the said county, three of whom shall be residents of said town of Frankford and two of whom shall be non-residents of said town, commanding them to assess the damages which the owner of the real estate through or over whose lands said street, lane, or alley shall pass, who shall have notified the said town council of their intention to appeal, may incur by reason thereof, and to make return of their proceedings to the associate judge at a time therein appointed. The freeholders named in such commission, being first sworn or affirmed, as in said commission shall be directed, shall view the premises, and they, or a majority of them, shall assess the damages as aforesaid, and shall make return, in writing, of their proceedings in the premises to the said associate judge, who shall deliver said return to said town council, which shall be final and conclusive.

The said associate judge shall have power to fill any vacancy in the commission. The amount of damages being ascertained, the town council may pay or tender the same to the person or persons entitled thereto within one month after the same shall be finally ascertained, or if the person or persons so entitled reside out of or are absent from the town during the said period of one month, then the same may be deposited, to his or her credit, in the Farmers Bank of the State of Delaware, at Georgetown, within said time, and thereupon the said property or land may be taken or occupied for the uses aforesaid. In the ascertainment and assessment of damages by freeholders appointed by the associate judge aforesaid, if the damages shall be increased the costs of the appeal shall be paid by the treasurer of the town out of any money in his hands belonging to the town; but if said

The fees to the freeholders shall be two dollars per day to each, which shall be taxed as part of the costs. After the damages shall be fixed and ascertained by the freeholders, the town council shall have the option to pay the damages assessed within the time aforesaid and to proceed with the said improvements, or, upon the payment of the costs only, may abandon the proposed improvements.

Option of Town Council.

Section 9. The town council shall have power to enact ordinances to prevent nuisances, to preserve the health of the town, and prevent the introduction of infectious or contagious diseases, for which purpose their jurisdiction shall extend to any distance within one mile of the limits of said town. The council may also pass ordinances to define and remove nuisances; to ascertain and fix boundaries of streets, squares, lanes and alleys, or to repair and improve the same, or to alter, extend or widen any street, square, lane or alley, or open and lay out new ones, subject to the provisions in that behalf hereinbefore contained; to regulate and fix the ascents and descents of all streets, lanes and alleys, and the drainage thereof; to direct the paving or graveling of footways and to prescribe the width thereof; to regulate and provide for the making of gutters, and the placing of gutter stones or plates therein, and for curbing wherever in their opinion such paving or graveling, making of gutters and the placing of gutter stones or plates therein, and curbs, may be necessary or proper; to prescribe the extent of steps, porches, cellar doors and other inlets to lots and buildings; to regulate the construction and repair of chimneys, and provide for keeping the same cleaned and in good order; to regulate the storage of gunpowder or any other dangerous or combustible material, and to provide against casualties by fire. No person shall be obliged to pave any footway to greater breadth than four feet in front of any vacant lot or lots not near or adjoining a dwelling house, and no grading, curbing or widening of sidewalks shall, after the same has once been established, be directed to be altered or changed for a period of ten years, except upon the petition of a majority of the property owners holding land on such street or part of street where such alteration or change is proposed to be made, and upon such petition the town council shall have the option to make such change or alteration, or not. The town council shall also have power to enact ordinances in relation to

Section 10. Wherever the said town council shall have determined that any paving and curbing, or any or either or all of them shall be done, they shall notify the owners of the land in front of whose premises the same is to be done, particularly designating the nature and character thereof, and thereupon it shall be the duty of such owner to cause such paving, graveling and curbing to be done in conformity with said notice. In the event of any owner neglecting to comply with said notice for the space of thirty days, the said council may proceed to have the same done, and when done the treasurer of the town shall, as soon as convenient thereafter, present to the owner or owners of such lands a bill showing the expense of such paving, graveling and curbing; if such owner or owners be not resident in the town of Frankford, such bill may be presented to the occupier or tenant of said lands, or if there be no occupier or tenant resident of said town of Frankford, such bill may be sent by mail to such owner or owners, directed to him or them at the post-office nearest his or their residence. If such bill be not paid by the owner or owners of such lands within thirty days after the presentation thereof as aforesaid, then it shall be the duty of said town council to issue a warrant in the name of the town of Frankford, under the hand of the president of the town council and the seal of the said corporation, directed to the treasurer of the town of Frankford, commanding him that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of such owner or owners, he should cause to be levied and made the amount of the said bill, together with all costs. If no goods and chattels of such owner or owners can be found within said town sufficient to satisfy the amount of said bill with all costs, then it shall be the duty of the said treasurer of the said town of Frankford, after ten days' notice to such owner or owners aforesaid, and after posting five or more notices of sale in at least five of the most public places in the town of Frankford, for at least ten days' before the day of sale, and after causing such notice of sale to be published twice in one newspaper printed in the said town of Frankford (or if there be no newspaper printed in the said town of Frankford, then in a newspaper printed anywhere in Sussex County), to sell the lands and tenements of such owner or owners in front of which such paving, graveling and curbing, or either of them, have been done, or so much of said lands and tenements as may be sufficient to satisfy the amount of said bill with all costs, and a deed from the treasurer of the said town of Frankford shall convey to the purchaser or purchasers of such lands and tenements as full and complete title, in fee simple or otherwise, as if the same were executed by the owner or owners thereof. The claim for paving, graveling and curbing shall be a lien on the premises in front of which the said work was done, and shall have priority over any lien, incumbrance or conveyance suffered or made by the owner or owners after the presentation of the said bill as aforesaid. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of said town, of the purchase money of the said goods and chattels, or lands and tenements, sold as aforesaid, to pay all costs arising from the proceeds of sale to the parties entitled thereto, and to retain for the use of said town the amount of the said bill as aforesaid, and the residue of the said purchase money, if any, shall immediately be deposited in the Farmers Bank of the State of Delaware, at Georgetown, to the credit of the said owner or owners. The treasurer of the said town shall be entitled to receive five dollars for every sale of personal property under this section, and ten dollars for every sale of real estate under this section, together with such additional sum as may be reasonable and proper for the keeping, taking care of such personal property, for selling

Any notice required by this section to one co-owner shall be notice to all; and in case no owner shall reside in the said town, notice served upon the occupier or tenant shall be sufficient, or if there be no owner or occupier, or tenant of said premises resident in the said town, it shall be sufficient to send notice by mail to any owner of said premises, directed to him or her at the post office nearest his or her place of residence. The provisions hereinbefore contained in this section shall apply to any order made by the council of said town in respect to any pavement, sidewalk, or curb, heretofore made or done, which the said council may deem insufficient or to need repairing. The said council, in addition to the provisions of this section hereinbefore contained, shall have power and authority to enforce, by ordinance, all the requirements of this section by imposing such fines and penalties as shall in the judgment of said council be necessary and proper.

Power of Town Council to establish ordinances.

Meetings, number of and time.

Section 11. The town council of said town shall have power and authority to make, establish and publish such ordinances as they may deem beneficial for the good government of the said town at any stated meeting. There shall be four stated meetings in every year of the said council, to wit: on the first Saturday in March, June, September and December. They shall have and are hereby vested with power and authority to prescribe the fines and penalties for violation of any of the provisions of this act, or of the ordinances which they may enact in pursuance hereof, and which are not especially provided for in this act. All such fines and penalties which may be imposed either by this act or the ordinances enacted as aforesaid, may be collected before the alderman of said town, or any justice of the peace of said town, and in default of payment said alderman or justice of the peace may commit for any time not exceeding thirty days.

Council may appoint constables.

Section 12. The council of said town may appoint such number of town constables as shall be deemed necessary, who with the constable of Sussex County residing in said town shall constitute the town police. The council of said town shall also have power and authority to remove any of the town constables at any time and appoint others in the place of those removed, if it shall be deemed necessary to make such appointments.

Annual statement of receipts and expenditures.

Section 13. The council of said town shall cause a statement of their receipts and expenditures to be published once a year in at least one newspaper printed in said town, but if there be no newspaper printed in said town, it shall be the duty of said council to submit their book of accounts containing the amounts received and paid out during each year to the voters of said town at their regular March meeting for inspection, revision and approval. The said councilmen shall be allowed for their attendance at each of said stated meetings a sum not exceeding one dollar.

Section 14. The council of said town shall have power and authority to make such regulations and enact such ordinances ^{Additional powers.} relative to the traveling over and upon the streets, lanes, or alleys in said town, and to the use thereof, and the standing or placing of carts, carriages, or other vehicles, or obstructions, in and upon the public square, or any of said streets, lanes, alleys, or side walks. The town council shall also have power to enact ordinances in relation to and to prevent any horse, mare, colt, mule, cattle, sheep, swine and geese from running at large within the limits of the town, as they shall deem proper to secure the free and uninterrupted use and enjoyment thereof; and if any person shall violate the regulations and ordinances of the said council in that behalf, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay to the treasurer of said town for the use of said town, a sum not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered, with costs, by the treasurer of said town in the name of the Town of Frankford, before the alderman of said town, or before any justice of the peace residing in said town in the same manner as debts of like amount are recoverable by law.

Section 15. It shall and may be lawful for the council of said town to use the jail of Sussex County for the purpose of carrying ^{May use county jail for offenders.} into effect any judgment or sentence pronounced under the provisions of this act, or for carrying into effect any ordinances or regulations adopted under the provisions of this act; and it shall be the duty of the Keeper of said jail to receive and lock up in said jail any person committed to his custody under the provisions of this act, or under the provisions of any ordinance of the council of said town.

Section 16. The council of said town shall have the power and authority to use the money in the treasury of the said town or any portion thereof, for the improvement, benefit and ornament thereof, as they may deem advisable. In the general per- ^{Power to use money to improve town.}

formance of their duties, the acts, doings and determinations of a majority of the council of said town shall be as good and binding as the acts, doings and determinations of the whole. In case of a vacancy or vacancies in the council of said town, the remaining members, until such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled, as hereinbefore provided, shall have the same power and authority as the whole.

Duty of Alderman and Constable to preserve peace.

Section 17. It shall be the duty of the alderman of said town, and council of said town, and of the constable of Sussex county residing in said town, and of the town constables, to suppress all riotous, turbulent, disorderly or noisy assemblages or gatherings of persons in or about any buildings used for any fair, festival, concert or any other social, literary or religious meeting, or any entertainment whatsoever, or in the streets, lanes, squares or alleys of said town at any time or season whatever; to prevent all gatherings whatsoever which may obstruct or interfere with the free use of the streets, lanes, alleys, or sidewalks, and for this purpose it shall be the duty of any of said constables to seize and arrest any such persons so offending, and carry him or them before the alderman of said town, whose duty it shall be to hear and determine the case, and, upon conviction before him, the alderman shall sentence any such person so convicted to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars, and may commit the party or parties to prison for a period not exceeding thirty days, or until said fine and costs shall be paid. It shall be the duty of the alderman of said town, upon complaint made before him of any such riotous, turbulent or noisy assemblages or gatherings as aforesaid, to issue his warrant to anyone of the constables aforesaid, commanding him to arrest and bring any such person so offending as aforesaid before him for trial. It shall be the duty of the constables aforesaid, or any one of them, to arrest any drunken or disorderly person they may see on the streets of said town, and take such person so arrested before the alderman of said town, who shall proceed forthwith to hear and determine the case, and upon conviction before him he shall sentence such person in the same manner and to the same punishment provided in this section for the punishment of persons brought before him for the offences in this section first enumerated. If, upon view of the person or persons who may be brought before the alderman of said town for violation of this section, it shall appear to the alderman that in his judgment such person or per-

Section 18. The alderman of said town, the council of said town and the town constables shall have power and authority to suppress, extinguish and prevent all bonfires in any of the streets, lanes, alleys or squares of the said town, and to suppress and prevent the firing of guns or pistols, or the setting off of fire-crackers or other fire-works, or the making or throwing of fire-balls within the limits of said town, and the council of said town may by ordinance or ordinances impose fines and penalties upon the persons violating the provisions of this section, and may provide for the collection of such fines and penalties so imposed.

To suppress bonfires.

Section 19. The council of said town are hereby authorized and required to cause all obstructions and nuisances that may at any time be and exist within the limits of said town, whether on the public square or in the streets, lanes, or alleys, or on the sidewalks, or in any other place within the limits aforesaid, to be removed and abated. The council of said town, or a majority of them, may proceed either on their own view or upon complaint of any other citizen, in writing, stating the character of the obstruction or nuisance and where the same exists. If the council of said town, or a majority of them, either of themselves or upon such information, and upon view, shall determine that an obstruction or nuisance exists and ought to be removed, they shall give notice, in writing, signed by the president of said council, to the person causing the obstruction or nuisance, or who is responsible for its existence or continuance, to remove or abate the same; and if such person shall refuse or neglect, for the space of two days after such notice, to remove or abate such obstruction or nuisance, the council of said town shall have power and authority to cause such obstruction or nuisance to be removed or abated, and for this purpose the council of said town may issue a warrant in the name of the town of Frankford, under the hand of the president of the council and the seal of the said corporation, and directed to any constable of the town of Frankford, commanding him forthwith to remove or abate such obstruction or nuisance; whereupon the constable to whom the said warrant may be delivered shall forthwith proceed to remove or abate the same, and for this purpose he shall have full power and authority to enter into and upon any lands and premises within the town of Frankford, and to take with him such assistance, implements, horses, carts, wagons, or other things as may be necessary and proper and do and perform all matters, and things, right and proper to be done for the removal of such obstruction or the abatement of such nuisance. The cost and damages of all the proceedings shall be determined and adjudged by the council of said town for the use of the town, and shall be paid by the person causing the obstruction or nuisance, or who is responsible for its existence or continuance; within ten days after a bill, stating the amount of such cost and damages, shall have been presented to such person. Then the council of said town may proceed to collect the same out of the goods and chattels of such person, by warrant issued to the treasurer of said town, in the same manner as is provided in Section 10 of this act for the collection of the expenses of any paving, graveling, &c., and the treasurer of said town, upon the receipt of such warrant, shall have all the powers to sell the goods and chattels of such person conferred, and shall proceed in the same manner as directed by said section ten of this act on warrants directed to him under said section to collect the expense of paving, graveling, &c., except that nothing in this section contained shall confer any power upon the treasurer of said town to sell any lands and tenements. If the person causing such obstruction or nuisance or who is responsible for its existence or continuance, shall neglect or refuse to remove or abate the same for the space of two days after such notice as aforesaid, he shall in addition to the provisions hereinbefore in this section in that behalf contained, forfeit and pay to the treasurer of said town, for the use of the town, the sum of five dollars, and one dollar additional for each and every day such obstruction or nuisance shall continue unremoved or abated after the expiration of the two day's notice as aforesaid, to be recovered.

In ascertaining the amount of the judgment, the person before whom the case is heard and determined shall compute the time beginning with and including the day following the expiration of the said two day's notice up to and including the day on which judgment is rendered, if the obstruction or nuisance be then not removed or abated, or if then removed or abated up to and exclusive of the day on which such obstruction or nuisance was removed or abated, and one dollar for every such day shall be added to the five dollars and judgment rendered accordingly. If the amount of the judgment, exclusive of costs, shall exceed one hundred dollars, the case shall not be cognizable before the alderman or a justice of the peace, but in such case suit, in the name of the town of Frankford, may be brought in the Superior Court of the State of Delaware, in and for Sussex County. These last provisions shall be cumulative and additional to the provisions hereinbefore in this section contained.

Section 20. If any constable shall neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties required of him by this act he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and it shall be the duty of the council of said town to present him to the Grand Jury of Sussex county, and upon conviction thereof by indictment he shall be fined in a sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, and may be imprisoned, at the discretion of the court, for any term not exceeding one year, and upon such conviction he shall ipso facto forfeit his office. Neglect of constable to perform duty.

Section 21. It shall be the duty of the council of said town, as soon as conveniently may be after the election of members of said council on the second Saturday in June after the passage of this act, and after each annual election of members in every year, as hereinbefore provided, to elect, by ballot, a treasurer, clerk, and assessor for said town, who shall hold their offices for the term of one year, and until their successors shall be duly elected. The treasurer and clerk may or may not be the same person. The assessor shall be a freeholder, resident in said town, and may or may not be a member of said council. The said council shall also have authority to elect, by ballot, a collector of taxes in any year they may think proper to do so. turn the same to the council of said town within six weeks next after the election of said assessor. The council of said town shall assess the real estate and person and taxable personal property of the assessor. The council of said town shall, within five days next after receiving said assessment list, cause a full and complete transcript of said assessment list to be hung up in the post-office in said town, there to remain for the space of ten days thereafter for public inspection, and the said council shall, on the Saturday next after the expiration of the said ten days, hold a court of appeal which shall continue open from one o'clock P. M. till four o'clock P. M. of said day, when they shall hear and determine appeals from the said assessment, and may make correction of, addition to, or alteration in the said assessment. Notice of the hanging up of the said assessment list, and also at the same time notice of the time and place of hearing appeals shall be given by posting such notice in at least six public places in the town of Frankford. The determination of the council of said town upon any appeal or upon any matter relating to such assessment shall be final and conclusive. No member of council of said town shall sit upon his own appeal, but the same shall be heard and determined by the other members of said council. After the said valuation and assessment shall be examined and adjusted by the council of said town, all taxes shall be levied, assessed and raised on the real estate, personal property and persons thus valued and assessed, in just and equal proportions and rates. The assessor, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall be sworn or affirmed diligently, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties of his office to the best of his ability, knowledge and judgment, which oath or affirmation may be administered to him by the president of said council, or by any member thereof, or by any justice of the peace or notary public.

Prothonotary to certify upon the record. record of said judgment, or of the testatum fieri facias, as the case may be, or by scire facias, in manner hereinafter set forth; provided, however, that if a writ of scire facias shall be sued out of said court before the expiration of said term of ten years, and said term shall expire during the pendency of the proceedings upon the said scire facias, the lien of said judgment shall continue until final determination by said court of the rights of the respective parties thereto, or until the discontinuance or dismissal of such scire facias; and provided further, that if final judgment in such scire facias shall be rendered against the plaintiff or plaintiffs therein, and a writ of error shall be taken and the Court of Errors and Appeals shall render final judgment thereon in favor of the plaintiff or plaintiffs in error, the lien of such original judgment shall be restored and continued, but such restoration or continuance of said lien by such final judgment by the Court of Errors and Appeals shall not in any manner affect or be operative as against any bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, or judgment creditor who shall become such after the entry of such final judgment by the Superior Court upon such scire facias and before the noting upon the record of such final judgment in such scire facias of the taking of such writ of error.

Proviso.

Lien to continue pending proceedings on scire facias.

Writ of error may restore judgment.

When not operative as against bona fide purchaser.

Extension of lien for ten years.

Further renewals.

Section 2. Immediately from and after the minuting and certifying upon the record of such original judgment, or of such testatum fieri facias, as the case may be, of such agreement for the existence of the lien thereof, or the entry of final judgment in the Superior Court in favor of the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such writ of scire facias, or the entry of final judgment in the Court of Errors and Appeals restoring and continuing such lien, such lien shall continue for the further term of ten years next thereafter unless sooner lost by final judgment of the Court of Errors and Appeals. And in like manner and with like effect such liens so renewed or restored and continued may, by a like agreement filed and minuted and certified upon the record of such original judgment, or of such testatum fieri facias, as the case may be, as aforesaid, before the expiration of the extended term or by final judgment in scire facias as aforesaid, be again renewed or restored and continued for the further term of ten years, and so from time to time as often as shall be found necessary.

After January, 1905, no real estate to be taken by execution.

Section 3. After the first day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred and five, no real estate shall be seized or taken by virtue of execution process upon any judgment for the recovery of money entered or recorded in the Superior Court of this State in either Kent County or Sussex County prior to the first day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred and five, and wholly due and payable on or before the day and year last aforesaid, and from and after the said first day of January A. D. nineteen hundred and five, the lien of such judgment upon real estate shall be lost unless prior to that time such lien shall be renewed and continued by agreement filed or by scire facias sued out in manner as provided in the preceding sections of this act.

tion process upon judgment of record prior to January, 1905, if same be due and payable.

Liens to be lost unless renewed by agreement or scire facias.

No real estate shall be seized or taken by virtue of execution process upon any other judgment, for the recovery of money heretofore entered or recorded in said Court, after the expiration of the term of ten years next following the day of entry or recording of such judgment; or in case the whole or any part of the money for which such judgment was recovered or rendered was not due and payable at or before the time of its entry or recording, the day on which such money became or shall become wholly due and payable, and at the expiration of said term of ten years the lien of such judgment upon real estate shall be lost, unless within the said term of ten years such judgment shall be renewed and continued by agreement filed or by scire facias sued out in manner as provided in the preceding sections of this act. All the provisions of the preceding sections not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall be applicable for the renewal or restoration and continuance and preservation of the lien of the judgments hereinbefore mentioned in this section and as to the force and effect and the loss of such lien.

No real estate to be seized after lapse of ten years.

Section 4. In case the lien upon real estate of any judgment for the recovery of money heretofore or hereafter entered or recorded in the Superior Court of this State in either Kent County or Sussex County shall be lost or interrupted under the provisions thereof and the said judgment shall thereafter be revived by scire facias, the same when so revived shall be a lien upon the real estate of the defendant or defendants in the original judgment, or, in case of judgment upon a mechanic's lien upon the real estate originally bound by such mechanic's lien from the time of such revival, but such lien shall not relate back, nor shall it in any manner affect any prior bona fide purchaser or mortgagee from or judgment creditor of such defendant or defendants or terre tenant or terre tenants.

Judgments revived by scire facias a lien for ten years from time of renewal, but not to affect prior bona fide purchaser.

OF JUDGMENTS.

Proceedings
under writ of scire facias.

Section 5. A writ of scire facias for the renewal and continuance of the lien upon real estate of a judgment under the provisions of this act may be sued out of the Superior Court of this State in the county in which such original judgment has been or shall be entered or recorded by the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such judgment, or the assignee or assignees thereof, or the person or persons to whose use such judgment has been or shall be marked, or his, her or their executors or administrators against the defendant or defendants in such judgment and the terre tenant or terre tenants of the real estate bound by such lien, or, in case of a judgment on a mechanic's lien, the terre tenant or terre tenants, directed to the Sheriff of the county in which such writ shall issue, commanding him to make known to the defendant or defendants therein that he, she or they appear before said court and show cause, if any there be, why the lien of such judgment should not be renewed and continued. And in all other respects the practice, pleadings and procedure upon such scire facias shall conform as nearly as may be to the practice, pleadings and procedure on other writs of scire facias sued out of said court upon judgments under existing Law.

Practice and pleadings.

Final judgment.

If final judgment be rendered for the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such writ, it shall be that the lien of such original judgment shall stand renewed and continued for the term of ten years next following the day of the entry of such judgment in the said action of scire facias, and that the plaintiff or plaintiffs therein have execution thereon as in other cases during said term of ten years.

Cases in which
this act shall not apply.

Section 6. The provisions of the foregoing sections of this act shall not operate to defeat the due enforcement of any writ of execution under any judgment for the recovery of money heretofore or hereafter entered or recorded in the Superior Court of this State, in either Kent County or Sussex County, by virtue of which real estate shall be seized or taken, if such writ of execution shall be issued before the first day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred and five, or before the expiration of the said term of ten years, as the case may be, nor shall they apply to any judgment heretofore or hereafter entered by virtue of a warrant of attorney or otherwise, by confession in said court in either Kent County or Sussex County upon any bond or obligation of indemnity, or for the faithful discharge of duty, or with conditions other than for the payment of money, or to any judgment upon a mortgage or recognizance, nor shall they in any manner apply to or affect the lien of any judgment on a bond accompanied by a mortgage, and to secure which bond such mortgage has been or shall be given, except as to real estate not included in such mortgage.

Section 7. No judgment hereafter entered by virtue of a warrant of attorney in the Superior Court of this State, in either Kent County or Sussex County, upon any bond or obligation with condition other than for the payment of money, shall be or operate as a lien upon real estate until said bond or obligation and warrant of attorney, or a copy thereof, certified under the hand of the prothonotary and the seal of said court, shall be filed in the office of such prothonotary. ^{judgment on bond other than for the payment of money, not lien on real estate unless first certified and filed by prothonotary.} It shall be the duty of the prothonotary, at all times thereafter, to safely keep such bond or obligation and warrant of attorney, or certified copy thereof, in his office. ^{Duty of prothonotary.} The provisions of this section shall not apply to any official bond or obligation given by a public officer.

Section 8. The fees of the prothonotary for services under the provisions of this act shall, in so far as they are not provided for by existing law, be regulated by the Superior Court of the State in the several counties. ^{Fees of prothonotary.}

Section 9. All Acts or parts of acts in so far as inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

RESOLUTIONS.

CHAPTER 471.

Preamble.

Whereas, the grave of George Truitt, who served as Governor of Delaware from 1808 to 1811, located on a farm in South Murderkill Hundred in Kent County in this State, is neglected, and the tombstones covering the remains of himself and family have fallen into decay owing to the fact that there are no living relatives of the deceased to look after the same;

Preamble.

And whereas, the services rendered by George Truitt as Governor, of this State, and in other public capacities, afford ample and proper reasons why the State of Delaware should interest itself in the preservation of his remains, by reintering the same in some secure and proper place;

Therefore, Be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met:

Joint committee to arrange for the removal of the remains of Governor
George Truitt
and family and the tombstones
thereof to Bar-ratt's chapel.

That a joint committee consisting of John Hunn, Governor, representing the State, Alvan B. Conner representing the Senate, and Joseph Frazier, representing the House of Representatives, be and are hereby appointed to arrange for the removal of the remains of Governor George Truitt and family from their present place of interment on the Downham farm in South Murderkill Hundred in Kent County in this State, and also provide for the interment of the bodies, and the placing of the tombstones now covering the same, in the cemetery at Barretts Chapel, near Frederica, in this State; the expenses incident to said removal shall be borne by the State; provided said expenses shall not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, and provided that said committee shall report to the present session of the General Assembly, a detailed statement showing the items of expenditure incurred in carrying out the objects of this resolution.

Approved February 23, A. D. 1903.
